Apply Skills

Point of View Use the passage and what you know about point of view to answer each question.

The British government makes laws for the colonies, and we have no say about these laws. They have taxed many of the goods we need, including sugar, paper, and tea. These laws are terrible! Now there is a law against town meetings. How can the British government decide what's best for the colonies? Its laws have only hurt us. I say it's time to make our voices heard.
