August 2018

Dear Uniondale Community,

I hope all of you are enjoying the summer months with your family and friends. Although this time is one for relaxing, Uniondale administrators are busy at work, and District scholars are assiduously pursuing their passions. One of the District's most prized organizations, the Rhythm of the Knight show choir, has continued their run of excellence throughout the summer and is set to perform on the Today Show this Monday, August 6th.

After closing out 2017 with an electrifying performance at NYCB LIVE: Home of the Nassau Veterans Memorial Coliseum, the Rhythm of the Knight knew this year was going to be special. The show choir went on to win a series of regional competitions in New York City and Orlando, Florida. This run of victories culminated in the scholars winning the designation of Grand Champion at the FAME Show Choir National Finals in Chicago, Illinois in May. Later on in June, the show choir performed alongside Foreigner at the Northwell Health at Jones Beach Theatre.

Now, the scholars in our show choir are very excited to have this opportunity to appear on live television. Parents, guardians, friends and community members of the District are encouraged to tune in to NBC at 7:00 a.m. (EST) on August 6th to support our exuberant Rhythm of the Knight members perform for the entire nation. I ask that all of you join me in congratulating our crown-jewel choir, and cheer them on during their continued time in the spotlight!

Sincerely,

Dr. William K. Lloyd
Superintendent
