September 20, 2018

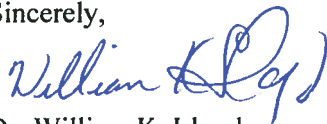

Dear Uniondale School District community,

I am very excited to welcome the start of the 2018-2019 school year with great news from Uniondale High School. While the year has only just begun, our very own Ms. Lynnette Carr-Hicks has been receiving national recognition for her work with our show choir national champions, the Rhythm of the Knight. As many of you know, the Rhythm of the Knight was crowned Grand Champion at the FAME Show Choir National Finals in Chicago, Illinois, this past May. This Friday, Ms. Carr-Hicks will join Steve Harvey on his talk show, STEVE, to commemorate this achievement and the lasting impact she continues to make on the lives of our scholars.

In addition to accolades for her work with our Rhythm of the Knight show choir, Harvey will be recognizing Ms. Carr-Hicks for the substantial contributions she has made to the enrichment of our students' lives and the continuing efforts she makes to empower our diverse group of scholars.

I hope everybody in our passionate community can join us and tune into the show on NBC at 2 p.m. (EST) to celebrate this distinguished educator and inspiring human being.

Sincerely,

Dr. William K. Lloyd
Superintendent of Schools
