Prince George County Public Schools Selects Mr. Dustin Menhart
As New Assistant Superintendent of Support Services

PRINCE GEORGE, Va. - Prince George County Public Schools is pleased to announce Mr. Dustin Menhart will be joining the school division as its new Assistant Superintendent of Support Services.

Mr. Menhart is currently a Lieutenant Colonel in the United States Army completing his last active duty assignment as a Professor of Military Science at the College of William and Mary and at Christopher Newport University.

His service has included serving as a Battalion Executive Officer at the United States Transportation Command, U.S. Army Logistics and Operations Officer, and as an Assistant Professor of Geography & Environmental Engineering at the U.S. Military Academy at West Point. He is also a Bronze Star Recipient with this acknowledgement coming from his work in Afghanistan.

Mr. Menhart holds a Master of Military Arts and Science from the Command and General Staff College of Fort Leavenworth, Kansas; a Master of Science in Environmental Studies from the University of Georgia at Athens; a Master of Arts in Regional Geography and Urban Studies from the California University of Pennsylvania; a Demonstrated Master Logistician (DML) from the International Society of Logistics at Fort Lee, VA; a Topographical Surveying Analyst from the Defense Mapping Agency, and a Top Secret Security Clearance.

“I am so excited to join the illustrious team at PGCPSS and begin contributing to the overall success of the school district,” Mr. Menhart stated. “As I begin the next chapter of my life, I could not have prayed for a better place to be than here, with the support of the PGCPSS family and friends. I am looking forward to meeting everyone during my transition and orientation to the school district.”
