Presentations

- Mike Krantz / Developer presented on behalf of the Group Work Camp, requesting use of N.B. Clements Junior High School the summer of 2019. The Group Work Camp is composed of about 400 high school students sponsored through churches to perform community service repairing of homes, ramps, porches, roofs, etc.
- Donna Nixon was present from the Pierce Group to provide answers to questions concerning health insurance.
- N.B. Clements’ slogan for 2017-18 is “Embracing the Journey to our Destination on the Road to Full Accreditation”. Tana Jones spoke about the journey Clements’ students and staff are on to make their school a success. Chris Sumner spoke about the past, present, and future programs and the successes and expansions each group has experienced. Amber Thompson explained the student mentoring programs: Proving Adolescents Leadership Skills (PALS), Global Combat Support System-Army (GCSS), Helping Youth Prefer Excellence (HYPE), and Boys to Men. The Girls to Women program will begin next year. The Counseling Department implemented the Cares Program and provided meals to identified students. The English Department implemented the writing SOL Prep Rally to assist 8th graders and teachers volunteered their time to assist. Alyssa Ray, sponsor, spoke about the Junior Beta Club’s awards and achievements during the state competition. The Junior Beta Club now has the opportunity to attend the National Convention in Savannah, GA to represent Prince George Co.
- Susan Braswell was joined by Chris Wills, Sara Rose, and Darlene Heiser to share the news at South Elementary. “Promoting Kindness” is this year’s slogan. The school participated in several events promoting kindness by putting chemo bags together for chemo patients, sponsored a school supply drive for the students in Florida affected by the hurricanes and floods, collected used/out-grown coats and non-perishable food for the “Coats for Kids” program and the P.G. Food Bank, provided gifts for South families in need of assistance (hats, scarves, gloves), collected Pennies for Patients; completed activities within the classroom creating adjective flowers and placing hearts on a tree in front lobby whenever a student was witnessed performing an act of kindness, prepared crafts and cards and distributed to Alzheimer’s patients at Brighter Living; and had many jeans’ days and a fundraiser for the Jennifer Brown family. “Kindness is contagious …..pass it on!”
