

SUMMER SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

A student attending summer school is allowed no more than three absences in a particular summer school course. Exceptions may be granted by the Building Principal for verified extenuating circumstances.

Students who are five to fifteen minutes late to class will be given half an absence. Students who are more than fifteen minutes late to class will be given a full absence.

A student exceeding three absences which have not been granted exceptions is prohibited from further participation in that course during that summer session.
