

Remembering 400 + Years

Knowing the Past to Understand Our Present and Future

FREE & Open to the Public

Saturday, May 18, 2019 @ 2PM
Town of Ramapo Cultural Arts Center
64 N. Main St, Spring Valley, NY
Parking at Memorial Park

Sponsored by the African American Historical Society of Rockland County (AAHS)

The year 2019 marks 400 years since the documented arrival of African people in Jamestown Virginia. Join this community observance for the entire family and an educational experience for educators, students and the community at-large.

Keynote speaker:

Sylviane A. Diouf
Award winning writer, historian and author of Slavery's Exiles, The Story of the American Maroons

Join us for music, dance, poetry, spoken word, resistance readings and much more!

Special recognition of Haitian Independence and Flag Day

Book signing and reception after the event

For more information, email: info@aaahsofrockland.org
Website: aaahsofrockland.org

This program made possible with the generous support of:
The Town of Ramapo

