INTRODUCTION

Subdivision (dd) of Section 100.2 of the Regulations of the Commissioner of Education requires that by September 1, 2000, and annually by September 1 of each school year thereafter, school districts adopt a professional development plan. The purpose of the plan is to continue to improve the quality of teaching and learning by ensuring that teachers participate in substantial professional development to remain current in their profession while meeting the learning needs of their students.

The following plan was developed by collaboration among the participants on the Pawling Professional Development Plan Team. The individuals listed were appointed to service on the Pawling Professional Development Plan Team at the October 2, 2017 and October 17, 2017 meetings of the Pawling Board of Education.

As required, the Pawling Congress of Teachers selected the teacher representatives, and the Pawling Administrators' Association selected the administrative representatives. The Pawling Parent/ Teacher and Parent/ Teacher/ Student Associations selected the parent representative. Students self-selected following presentations to their class or were identified by school counselors based on an interest in teaching. The professional organization representatives were identified by the Chair.

MISSION OF THE PAWLING CENTRAL SCHOOL DISTRICT

The mission of the district is to educate students in the values, critical skills and essential knowledge necessary to be informed and responsible citizens, prepared to take the next steps in their education, careers and lives in our diverse society.

PROFESSIONAL LEARNING PHILOSOPHY OF THE PAWLING SCHOOL DISTRICT

Professional learning in the Pawling School District supports the continuing education of teachers, administrators, and other educators who have responsibility for the education of students. Engagement in professional learning builds educators' ability to deeply understand their disciplines, their students, and their practices and to make informed, principled, and research-based use of what they know for the benefit of students. Effective professional development not only provides educators with strategies, but reasons and rationale for the use of those strategies.

Quality professional development learning in the Pawling School District recognizes that teachers are central to student learning, and that all members of the school community contribute to student learning. Pawling professional development assumes that all educators have the capacity to learn, grow, and improve in their capacity to support student learning, regardless of their level of experience and expertise. Pawling's professional development reflects current available research and effective practices in teaching, while promoting continuous and collegial inquiry and improvement embedded in the daily life of its schools.

- The Professional Learning Plan requires ongoing and varied assessment and evaluation.

PROFESSIONAL LEARNING MISSION OF THE PAWLING SCHOOL DISTRICT

The Pawling School District has as its mission to educate students in the values, critical skills and essential knowledge necessary to be informed and responsible citizens, prepared to take the next steps in their education, careers and lives in our diverse society. This mission informs and directs the learning opportunities that the District offers both to its students and to its staff members.

Education for the students of the Pawling School District derives from the commitment of its staff to their own professional growth. The connection between student success and empowered and effective teachers is well established by research.

By fulfilling the New York State mandate that each of its school districts publish a Professional Development Plan, the Pawling Central School District has created a tool to support its governing process. The Plan enables stakeholders to focus on clear, shared goals for student learning, to collaborate with colleagues in achieving those goals, and to reflect upon their own learning and professional practice. As a framework, the Plan:

- Delineates in a clear manner the goals that it has for the professional growth of staff as they work to improve student outcomes.
- Outlines a general plan of work that leads to those goals.
- Establishes ways in which to monitor progress toward those goals.

In order to insure its success, the Plan takes into account characteristics of the adult learner. It acknowledges that adults have individual learning styles and preferences. The Plan outlines avenues for professional growth in a variety of formats. The Plan recognizes that adults, like students, learn best when they have the opportunity to participate in designing and constructing their own learning and provides opportunities for collaboration, problem solving, experimentation, and reflective practice, in a supportive environment.

NATIONAL AND STATE STANDARDS FOR PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Professional development for educators is a respected and well-researched field within education and has its own set of nationally recognized standards, which were revised in 2011 by Learning Forward, formerly the National Staff Development Council.

1. Learning Communities: Professional learning that increases educator effectiveness and results for all students occurs within learning communities committed to continuous improvement, collective responsibility, and goal alignment.
2. Resources: Professional learning that increases educator effectiveness and results for all students requires prioritizing, monitoring, and coordinating resources for educator learning.
3. Learning Designs: Professional learning that increases educator effectiveness and results for all students integrates theories, research, and models of human learning to achieve its intended outcomes.
4. Outcomes: Professional learning that increases educator effectiveness and results for all students aligns its outcomes with educator performance and student curriculum standards.
5. Leadership: Professional learning that increases educator effectiveness and results for all students requires skillful leaders who develop capacity, advocate, and create support systems for professional learning.
6. Data: Professional learning that increases educator effectiveness and results for all students uses a variety of sources and types of student, educator, and system data to plan, assess, and evaluate professional learning.
7. Implementation: Professional learning that increases educator effectiveness and results for all students applies research on change and sustains support for implementation of professional learning for long term change. (Learning Forward, 2011)

New York State Professional Development Standards are based on a previous version of the national standards. They are:

1. Designing Professional Development: Professional development design is based on data; is derived from the experience, expertise and needs of the recipients; reflects best practices in sustained job-embedded learning; and incorporates knowledge of how adults learn.
2. Content Knowledge and Quality Teaching: Professional development expands educators' content knowledge and the knowledge and skills necessary to provide developmentally appropriate instructional strategies and assess student progress.
3. Research-based Professional Learning: Professional development is research-based and provides educators with opportunities to analyze, apply and engage in research.
4. Collaboration: Professional development ensures that educators have the knowledge, skill and opportunity to collaborate in a respectful and trusting environment.
5. Diverse Learning: Professional development ensures that educators have the knowledge and skill to meet the diverse learning needs of all students.

6. Student Learning Environments: Professional development ensures that educators are able to create safe, secure, supportive, and equitable learning environments for all students.
7. Parent, Family and Community Engagement: Professional development ensures that educators have the knowledge, skill, and opportunity to engage and collaborate with parents, families, and other community members as active partners in children’s education.
8. Data-driven Professional Practice: Professional development uses disaggregated student data and other evidence of student learning to determine professional development learning needs and priorities, to monitor student progress, and to help sustain continuous professional growth.
9. Technology: Professional development promotes technological literacy and facilitates the effective use of all appropriate technology.
10. Evaluation: Professional development is evaluated using multiple sources of information to assess its effectiveness in improving professional practice and student learning. (New York State Professional Development Standards, 2009)

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT EVALUATION

The impact of this plan is assessed through the measures outlined in the implementation plan. These include staff reaction, staff learning, organizational change, staff behavior and products, and student learning. These windows into the effectiveness of professional development were organized into a taxonomy by Thomas Guskey (1999). His levels of professional development evaluation (1-5) are indicated in the measures column of the implementation plan. Ongoing review of professional development assessment is necessary to create a continuously improving and responsive program of professional development. While this is a multi-year plan, ongoing assessment by the Assistant Superintendent for Instruction and the Professional Development Plan Team is required. Annual reports on the impact of the plan will be provided to the Board of Education and the community.

NEEDS/STRENGTHS ANALYSIS FOR THE PROFESSIONAL LEARNING PLAN

1. Pawling’s Professional Learning Plan is aligned with District goals, the New York State Learning Standards and assessments, as well as responsive to student strengths and needs. In adopting specific District goals, and delineating the objectives, and strategies outlined in the Plan, the Professional Learning Plan Team made use of existing analyses of formal, informal and standardized assessments of students and surveyed the professional staff relative to their perceived needs for support in meeting student goals.

Through the implementation of this plan, the Pawling School District expects to:

- Support a safe and inclusive learning environment
- Improve curriculum through attention to the New York State Learning Standards, national standards, and attention to innovative practices
- Improve student learning by providing engaging, differentiated, relevant, and personalized learning experiences and by continuing to develop and implement the District Vision of Literacy
- Support the induction and retention of new teachers into the profession and the District
- Support professional practice with 21st century tools and dispositions

2. The Professional Learning Plan is continuous, flexible and reflects a multi-year approach to improving student performance. The District annually revisits its goals based on needs, student assessment results, and professional growth opportunities delineated through the Annual Professional Performance Review. The PLP will be revised to meet new and/or changing needs as they are identified. We anticipate that this task will continue to be a reflection of the congruence between the PLP and the APPR in support of the New York State Standards. The Professional Development Plan Team will continue to meet to review annual student achievement data as well as review the other measures indicated in the evaluation plan.

NEEDS/STRENGTHS ASSESSMENT SOURCES USED

The Professional Learning Plan is informed by a variety of qualitative and quantitative data:

- Student achievement information from state report cards
- Trends in relative performance provided by School Meter
- Other District achievement information, e.g. Scholastic Aptitude and Advanced Placement results
- Demographic trends
- Graduation and dropout rates
- The New York State Standards and Assessments
- Instructional level performance gap analyses from BARS on the web
- Commissioner's regulations
- Input from building level technology committees and District Technology Plan
- Feedback from mentors and mentees
- Feedback from the instructional staff through surveys and evaluations
- Learning walk data, which may include the learning walk from data collected and/or feedback provided to the instructional staff following the learning walk
- APPR data
- Input from Instructional Cabinet and Curriculum Leaders
- Measures we value: student participation, rigorous coursework, learning targets, reading, quality local curriculum focus on instruction
- Human Library survey
- Curriculum Goal survey

DISTRICT RESOURCES

In pursuit of the goals of this Professional Learning Plan, the Pawling School District will use local funds, draw upon monies from Titles II and III, and other grant funding as available. The District will call upon the services of its teaching staff, administrative staff, curriculum leaders, technology staff, and community partners to assist in achieving the goals set forth in this document.

HOW TO READ THIS PLAN

The Goals in the plan align with District Goals. The objectives develop the ideas within the goals more specifically as they relate to professional learning. Goals and objectives exist in the District's professional development approval and tracking processes so that the District can ensure that professional learning is pertinent to the organization's Goals, while allowing for individual learning needs and strengths. Strategies, formats, resources, and evaluation guide the District's professional learning design and implementation in working to achieve the District Goals. Where a strategy is strongly related to another goal, the strategy is italicized for easy cross reference.
