Week of Respect

October 3, 2016- October 7, 2016

All four schools in Berkeley Township School District celebrated the Week of Respect from October 3, 2016 through October 7, 2016. During this week our schools provided a variety of lessons to focus on the prevention of harassment, intimidation and bullying. Some of these activities included team building exercises, performing random acts of kindness and celebrating through Spirit Days, including Peace Day, which served as a reminder to care for each other, and Wear Yellow Day, to honor the Golden Rule: treat others the way you would like to be treated.

National Bus Safety Week

October 17, 2016 through October 21, 2016

Berkeley Township School District celebrated National Bus Safety Week from October 17, 2016 through October 21, 2016. Students and staff showed their appreciation for our bus drivers with letters, posters and signs. Our district encourages and promotes school bus safety during this week and all weeks of the school year.
