Week of Respect

October 2, 2017- October 6, 2017

All four schools in Berkeley Township School District celebrated the Week of Respect from October 2, 2017 through October 6, 2017. During this week our schools provided a variety of lessons to focus on the prevention of harassment, intimidation and bullying. Students performed random acts of kindness and worked together on puzzles to practice problem solving and conflict resolution skills. They celebrated the Week of Respect with Respect Walks. Students also participated in Spirit Days, including Crazy Hat/Crazy Hair Day, to show the world we respect everyone for who they are and Peace Sign and Tie Dye Day, to demonstrate we all have different strengths but we can coexist.

National Bus Safety Week

October 16, 2017- October 20, 2017
