The Mississippi Department of Education is hosting a two day literacy summit for parents and guardians, educators, community partners, and policy makers. The theme for the 2019 summit is “A Shared Commitment to Literacy: Improving Literacy Outcomes for ALL from Birth to the Workforce.”

We encourage all parents and guardians to attend! The goal for the participants is to develop a deeper understanding of how literacy success improves outcomes for all students. Session topics include:

- Promoting Literacy in the Home
- Graduation Options
- Understanding Special Education Services
- Understanding Interventions and the Tier Process
- English Learner Supports

For more information, visit mdek12.org/LitSummit2019 or email literacysummit@mdek12.org.

NOTE: Unfortunately, the conference cannot accommodate children. Thank you for understanding.
