

Announcing the 2019
TimkenSteel Charitable Fund
Scholarship Program for dependents of employees

Ryan Soltis, son of Roger Soltis, program manager, receives his scholarship news from Tim Timken.

GLOBAL PROGRAM

Any field of study
Any accredited university in the world

UP TO 7 RECIPIENTS

1 $20,000 renewable award*
1 $10,000 renewable award*
5 $5,000 awards

*renewable for a total of four years

GENEROUS AWARDS

Can be used for tuition, room and board, books, fees and, in some cases, transportation

Encourage your high school senior to apply online before October 10, 2018.
www.timkensteel.com/scholarships

TIMKEN STEEL

Program is for eligible dependents of TimkenSteel employees. Eligibility is limited. Employee eligibility requires one year of service for full-time employees. Part-time employees must have either at least two years of part-time service or one year of full-time service during their tenure with the company to be eligible. Terms and conditions apply. See www.timkensteel.com/scholarships for program details.

Approved by Communications. Remove by October 11, 2018. #1453