Biography for Barbara A. Moore

Barbara Ann Moore was born in Richmond, Virginia on November 16, 1965 to the late Edward L. Moore, Sr. and Annie B. Moore. Barbara attended the Dinwiddie County School system until sixth grade when the family moved to Petersburg, VA where she received her high school diploma through the Petersburg School system. Barbara went on to attend John Tyler Community College majoring in Childcare Development.

Barbara had a love for children like no other. Her nieces, nephews, many cousins, and others became “her babies”. Barbara cared for, cooked, and nurtured children like they were her own. She later went on to birth her one and only son, Torrie, whom she loved more than life. Through Torrie, his friends also became “her babies”.

Barbara passed away suddenly on March 23, 2018. She leaves behind a son, a mother, siblings, nieces, and nephews who want to continue her memory through an educational scholarship. Barbara’s advice to many was to “get your education”. Through this scholarship, we hope to assist someone in achieving that goal.

Barbara A. Moore is Jessica A. Moore Aunt. They both loved children.
