Chapter One: Set up your House

These are a few steps to persuade a unicorn to be your pet. First your whole house needs to be pink. Pink is the unicorn's favorite color. Next you will need jelly beans, cupcakes, pink milk and tea. These are the unicorn's favorite foods. Dress yourself in a pink sparkly gown. Last you need to decorate your home with pink balloons, pink streamers and pink confetti cannons. Now you are ready for the unicorn to come to your house.

Chapter two: Catch a Unicorn

Here is how to find a unicorn. Only quiet and fast people can catch a unicorn. You will need a big pot of candy and a net disguised as a beautiful rainbow. Candy and rainbows attract unicorns. Hang the net above the pot of candy. When the unicorn takes the candy it will trigger the net to fall onto the unicorn.

Once the unicorn is in the net you will reveal yourself in your pink sparkly gown. The unicorn will be more relaxed and calmer once she sees your beautiful gown and you tell her about the tea party you have planned at home.

Chapter three: Throw a Tea Party

When you arrive at home set a beautiful tea party around the unicorn to welcome her as your pet. Tell the unicorn if she eats all of her food you will take her on a nice vacation. Unicorns love to travel. You tell the unicorn that you are taking her on a surprise vacation because unicorns also love surprises.

Chapter four: Go on Vacation

When you board the plane, the unicorn will ask again where you are going but don't spoil the surprise. Tell the unicorn to enjoy the flight it will take a few hours. The plane will land in Hawaii and the unicorn will be so excited as they place a necklace of flowers on her. The unicorn will want to see everything in Hawaii.

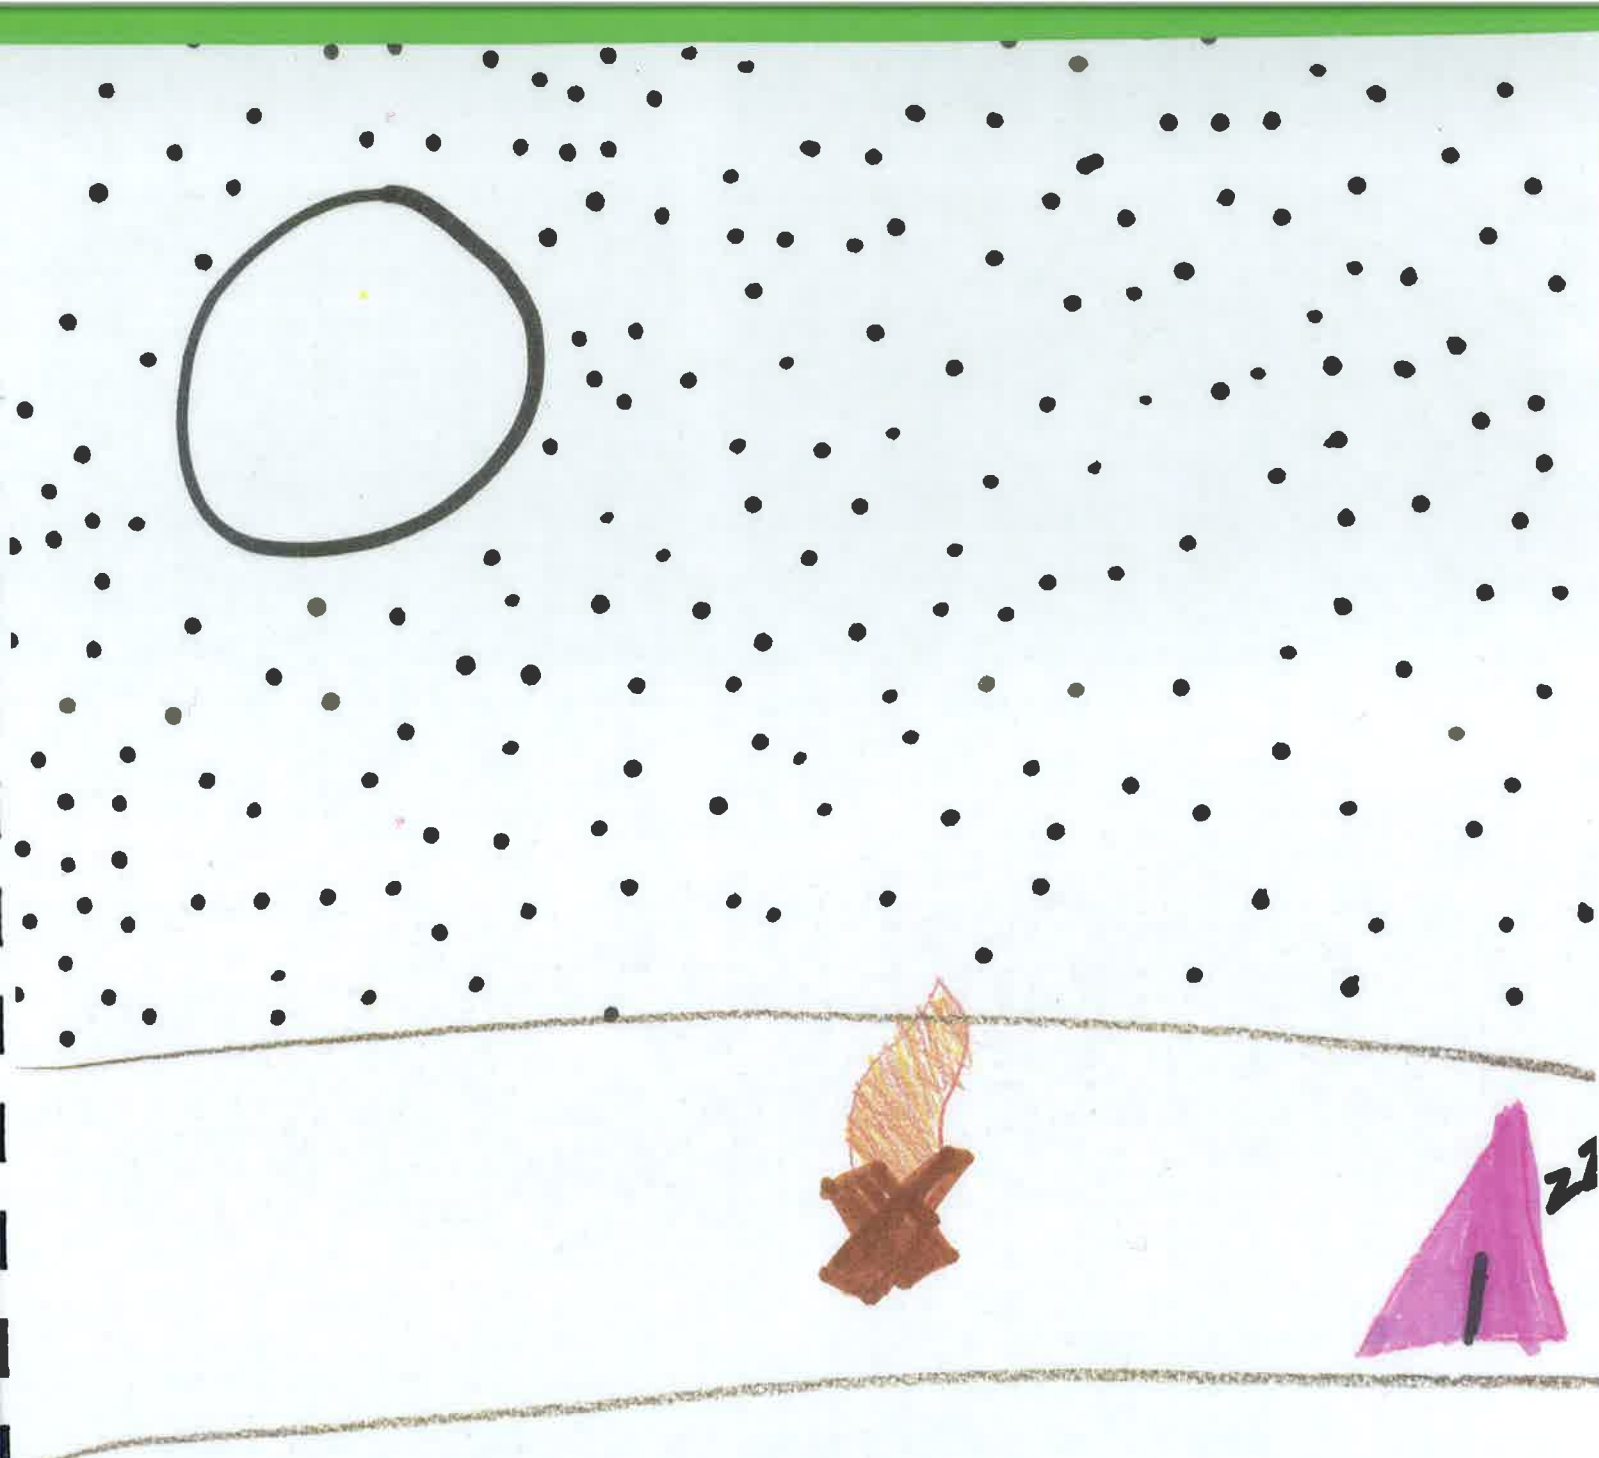

Take your unicorn for a bite to eat and check into your hotel. Over the next week you and your unicorn spend time together swimming, zip lining and looking at beautiful plants. On the last day of the trip you take your unicorn sightseeing at Volcano National Park. After exploring the park for awhile an alarm sounds. The volcano is erupting and you and the unicorn run back to the hotel to get your stuff. You make it to the airport and safely home together.

Chapter five: Happily Ever After

Once you are home you will ask the unicorn if she would like to stay and be your pet. The unicorn doesn't want to leave your beautiful pink home so of course she agrees to stay. You take the unicorn to shop for supplies you will need to care for her. Things you might need are a giant litter box full of pink sparkles, lots of cupcakes and a big cat scratching tower for the unicorn to climb.

The unicorn is happy to have a new friend and you and the unicorn plan many more vacations, tea parties and adventures. You both will live HAPPILY EVER AFTER.

The End.
