

PELHAM MIDDLE SCHOOL

June, 2017

Dear Parents,

Reading is not only a medium for transmitting information but also a way to travel to worlds beyond our own, nurturing our imaginations, our minds, and our spirits. While reading, we can explore other cultures, new ideas, and unfamiliar people facing challenges similar to ours. We find these experiences in various genres of literature. Whether it is a story of a struggle for civil rights in America or a struggle for virtue in a Tolkien novel like Lord of the Rings, books have the power to capture our curiosity and help us see the world with new eyes.

To encourage these journeys, we are providing reading lists of suggested titles to guide students in their reading choices. Please refer to the appropriate list for your child by grade level. These lists were compiled for students in Pelham Middle School by the classroom teachers, the library media specialist, and the Pelham Public Library. Our goal is for students to read during the summer as a recreational and pleasurable activity. We believe that summer reading is critical to our students' overall development and should be a joint responsibility of the school and home.

All middle school students should read a minimum of three books. These books may, but do not have to, come from the suggested reading list. We encourage you to assist your child in fulfilling this requirement. Browsing titles at the Pelham Public Library or at a local bookstore is an opportunity to support good reading choices. Please keep in mind that many young adult books deal with sensitive or more mature themes or content. Therefore, previewing the books before your child begins to read is suggested. At the end of the summer, each student should complete the form on the last page of the reading list. This form asks for a list of the three books that your child chose to read along with a parent or guardian signature. These forms will be collected during the first week of school in September.

Some of the titles may also be available on audio tape and would make for wonderful listening on long trips. You may also want to read the books your child selects so that you can talk about them together. We would like Pelham Middle School to be a community of readers, and need your support in achieving this goal.

Have a wonderful summer!

Sincerely,

Robert J. Roelle, Ed.D.

6th Grade Suggested Summer Reading List

Counting by 7s- Holly Goldberg Sloan

In the tradition of Out of My Mind, Wonder, and Mockingbird, this is an intensely moving middle school grade novel about being an outsider, coping with loss, and discovering the true meaning of family. (Fiction, Mature)

Mockingbird- Kathryn Erskine

Ten year-old Caitlin, who has Asperger's Syndrome, struggles to understand emotions, show empathy and make friends at school, while at home she seeks closure by working on a project with her father. (Fiction, Mature)

The Phantom Tollbooth – Norton Juster

Milo, a bored ten-year old, comes home to find a toy tollbooth sitting in his room. Joining forces with a watchdog named Tock, Milo drives through the tollbooth's gates and begins a memorable journey. (Fiction)

The One and Only Ivan- Katherine Applegate

When Ivan, a gorilla who has lived for years in a down-and-out circus-themed mall, meets Ruby, a baby elephant that has been added to the mall, he decides that he must find her a better life. (A Newbery Award winner, Fiction)

Masterminds- Gordon Korman

From bestselling author Gordon Korman comes a thrilling new middle grade trilogy of kids living in a Pleasantville-type town who discover a dark secret that connects them to some of the greatest criminal masterminds of their time. (Fiction)

Revenge of the Whale – Nathaniel Philbrick

Recounts the 1820 sinking of the whaleship “Essex” by an enraged whale and how the crew of young men survived against impossible odds. (Non-fiction)

The Diary of a Young Girl- Anne Frank

Discovered in the attic in which she spent the last years of her life, Anne Frank's remarkable diary has since become a world classic—a powerful reminder of the horrors of war and an eloquent testament to the human spirit. (Non-fiction)

The Finest Hours: The True Story of the U.S Coast Guard’s Most Daring Sea Rescue – Michael Tougias

In the winter of 1952, New England was battered by the most brutal nor’easter in years. As the weather wreaked havoc on land, the freezing Atlantic became a wind-whipped zone of peril. (Non-fiction)

I am Malala - The Girl Who Stood Up for Education and Was Shot by the Taliban - Malala Yousafzai and Christina Lamb

When the Taliban took control of the Swat Valley in Pakistan, one girl spoke out. Malala Yousafzai refused to be silenced and fought for her right to an education. (Non-fiction, Mature)

The Tarantula in My Purse: and 172 Other Wild Pets – Jean Craighead George

Humorous, heart-warming, and just plain entertaining, these stories by Newbery Medalist Jean Craighead George recall what life was like as she raised three children and 173 wild pets.

(Non-fiction)

6th Grade Top Picks

Holes- Louis Sachar

Stanley Yelnats, a boy who has bad luck due to a curse placed on his great- great-grandfather, is sent to Camp Green Lake, a juvenile detention camp, for a crime he did not commit.

Stanley and the other boys at the camp are forced to dig large holes in the dirt every day.

(Fiction)

When You Reach Me- Rebecca Stead

By sixth grade, Miranda and her best friend, Sal, know how to navigate their New York City neighborhood. But things start to unravel. Sal gets punched by a new kid for what seems like no reason, and he shuts Miranda out of his life. The apartment key that Miranda’s mom keeps hidden for an emergency is stolen. And then Miranda finds a mysterious note and the notes keep coming. Miranda slowly realizes that whoever is leaving them knows all about her, including things that have not even happened yet.

(Fiction)

Chains- Laurie Halse Anderson

The story of a thirteen-year-old slave named Isabel and her journey to discover her inner strength and fight for her freedom amidst the depravity of slavery and the upheaval of the Revolutionary War that divided America. (Fiction, Mature)

Everything for a Dog- Ann. M Martin

In this companion to her acclaimed 2005 novel, A Dog's Life, Ann M. Martin tells the parallel stories of a stray dog (the brother of the dog featured in A Dog's Life), a boy dealing with unspeakable loss, and a boy whose most ardent wish is to own a dog—and everything for a dog. (Fiction, Mature)

One for the Murphys – Lynda Mullaly Hunt

Twelve-year-old Carley Connors can take a lot. Growing up in Las Vegas with her fun-loving mother, she's learned to be tough. But she never expected a betrayal that would land her in a foster care. When she's placed with the Murphys, a lively family with three boys, she's blindsided. Do happy families really exist? Carley knows she could never belong in their world, so she keeps her distance. (Fiction, Mature)

Schooled – Gordon Korman

Homeschooled by his hippie grandmother, Capricorn (Cap) Anderson has never watched television, tasted a pizza, or even heard of a wedgie. But when his grandmother lands in the hospital, Cap is forced to move in with a school counselor and attend the local middle school. While Cap knows a lot about tie-dyeing and Zen Buddhism, no education could prepare him for the politics of public school. (Fiction)

Chomp – Carl Hiaasen

A combination of wild animals and reality TV is mixed with a dose of humor, adventure and mystery when the fame-seeking star of the show disappears in the Florida Everglades and Wahoo Cray, the young animal wrangler, and his new friend Tuna are the only ones who can find him. (Fiction)

Also: Hoot, Flush, Scat

Wonder - RJ Palacio

Born with a terrible facial abnormality, Augie has been home-schooled by his parents his whole life, in an attempt to protect him from the cruelty of the outside world. Now, for the first time, he's being sent to a real school - and he's dreading it. (Fiction)
