

FOOD SERVICE PRESS RELEASE

EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2020

The meal distribution program at PCPS has been granted an extension to continue serving free breakfast and lunch meals to ALL students who attend Powhatan County Schools, and to any other child 18 years or younger.

Effective July 1st through August 19th, the meal distribution day will be Wednesday each week at the following locations and times:

Distribution Times and Locations for Parent Pick-up:

Powhatan High School - 8:30am to 10:00am. Bus loop at the rear of the school.

Powhatan Middle School - 4:30pm to 6:30pm. Door 11 located on the western side of the school.

Lead-in and exit only signs are visible at each location to help with traffic flow.

Distribution Procedures:

Parents/Family Members are asked to drive up to the distribution station and state how many children are in the vehicle. The student(s) and/or children must be present in the vehicle in order to receive meals. A Food Service staff member will verify the number of children in the vehicle, and additional staff/volunteers will place the appropriate number of meals on a cart. The cart will be then rolled to the vehicle and the items will be placed inside by the driver or another adult in the vehicle. Carts are sanitized between each use.

If you are unable to pick up meals during the scheduled times, please contact Sodexo by email foodservice@powhatan.k12.va.us or phone 804-598-5700, extension 123, for an alternate time or delivery method.
