CELEBRATE
Women’s History

Your Middle School Library invites you to participate in a short essay contest open to ALL students:

Your essay, entitled Why girls are great … should present your thoughts on why girls are great, & must include at least one example of a great girl, (or woman,) from history, (meaning at least fifty years ago,) in no less than 250 words, but, not more than 350 words.

Share w/ Ms. Quinn via GoogleDocs – nquinn@nyackschools.org

DEADLINE: April 14th

A number of prizes will be awarded by your MIDDLE SCHOOL LIBRARY no later than April 30th

---

Amelia Earhart becomes the first woman to fly solo across the Atlantic, traveling from Harbor Grace, Newfoundland, to Ireland in approximately 15 hours.

---

Need help finding a great girl, or woman?

Ask your savvy Librarian!

Ms. Q says start HERE:

https://www.womenshistory.org/students-and-educators/biographies

---

BTW: 1st prize has been won by a boy . . . often.