* Access to a printer, ink, and computer paper will be very helpful.

The following supplies would be helpful to have for hands-on science lessons. If your child does not have access to these materials, they will still be able to complete assignments through viewing video demonstrations.

Small amount of playdough or clay

Paper plates

Chalk

Ruler

Marshmallows

Rubber bands

Uncooked spaghetti

Toothpicks

Small flashlight

Styrofoam ball, orange, or any spherical object that can be held up with a pencil

String

Toilet paper/paper towel tube

A few paper fasteners

Small compass (GPS on a cellphone is fine)
