Dear Cottle Families,

I hope you are all doing well, staying safe and healthy! I have heard tremendous positive feedback from parents at every grade level about the e-learning/Google Classroom activities, packets and other resources organized by the teachers to enable the students to access learning and continue instruction at home during this state mandated extended closure.

In addition, please go to the below links to access Mrs. Morris and Mr. Simone's websites where you will find a Daily Physical Activity Log and ideas of how to be physically active indoors and outdoors. The PE Department hopes that everyone stays healthy and physically active as much as they can during the duration of the extended closure.

Also, please check Ms. Derbin's website for grades K & 1 Art resources, assignments and activities. Students in grades 2, 3 and 4 were given a specific code for Google Classroom. That code can be found on an ART sheet that was included in their work folders that were sent home Wednesday, March 11. For all 5th Grade students in Ms. Schivley's Applications of Art in the Real World Class, there will be a follow up Blackboard Connect with online and off line resources for your children to access.

Thank you to all of our WEC parents/guardians for your continued understanding, flexibility, collaboration and teamwork as we work through this unique time of state mandated extended closure. Also, tremendous kudos and thanks to our WEC teachers and staff who worked incredibly hard to prepare assignments, resources and activities to ensure our Cottle Cubs' continued education during this time. We are all truly fortunate to have such amazing teachers and staff!

Please contact your child's teacher(s) or service providers if you have any questions or if you need clarification on anything. As always, please feel free to contact WEC Administration, as well.

Sincerely,

John Morash and Peter Kilgallen
