

SUMMER READING LIST

ENTERING FIFTH GRADE

Please select at least two books from this list to read this summer. Choose a book at your reading level that you have never read before. Most of these books are available in paperback at any of the large chain bookstores and may also be available at your local library. If you would like to check whether a book, not on this list, is on your reading level, or for other books at each level, you can check the following website:
