Curriculum Updates

Reading:

We are further developing our reading comprehension strategies on retelling and inferring.

Writing:

We will continue to work on Opinion Writing.

Math:

We will continue to focus on our seventh unit, How Many Tens? How Many Ones?

Social Studies:

We will be learning more about our community (past and present) and economics.

Science:

We will explore air and wind through the Air and Weather unit.

Park Study:

The students have been observing and comparing different parks. Soon, they will be planning and working collaboratively in group projects.
