

#CommunityChat

When thinking about undocumented students and families...

CCLARKE251 APR 12, 2020 04:06AM

What POSITIVE WORDS come to mind?

---

open, motivated, appreciative

Dedicated and determined

motivated

Inspired

Persistent and Determined and Self-motivated

hardworking, motivated and driven.

motivated, inspired,

Motivated

determined, resilient, strength

Persistent

Resilient, hard-working, caring

flexibility and patience

What CHALLENGES do you have in supporting them?

---

Language barrier

Understanding their needs. I can not gauge their needs.

Family/Parental support

Hoping to assist them with there need

comprehending their language dialect

displaced, lonely, feeling lost and unwanted.

feeling lost and misunderstood. keeping their culture in mind

Not being able to communicate with some parents due to their dialect

lack of support

limited resources, access to resources

Overcoming privacy concerns and confidentiality, language barriers

very limited access, connecting them to CBOs that helps undoc. immigrants

language barrier

cultural awareness/differences destigmatizing the stereotypes their peers have of them

fear of the unknown

What QUESTIONS do you have?

How can we help make sure that undocumented students and families receive the stimulus funds coming from the city (through the Soros foundation) I am getting a lot of questions about this.

How can we help fulfill their needs?

Through political pressure and community support..California is doing it.

How do we help? How do we change a system in multiple places that make this for some a necessity for so many from all over the world?

Can we get assistance with the dialect of Quichua

We need support with dialect to better assist parents

Resources SPECIFICALLY for UNDOCUMENTED families

What are resources that can be used to support students who are ELLs/MLLs coupled with needing additional supports?

How can I link them to resources or CBOs

how can I get info to work directly with organizations that support undocumented people

*****