

Back to School

September 3, 2020

Flexibility and Patience

The first days of school

Sept 16, 17, 18 will be fully remote.

- Orientation to remote learning
- Meet the teachers
- “More guidance to be released soon.”

September 21 will begin our regular school week and formal instruction

Monday/Tuesday will be Cohort A in person, Cohort B and D will be remote.

Instructional Orientation

All students will

- Reconnect to their school community
- Learn the health and safety procedures
- Check technical connectivity
- Have wellness checks with their teachers and guidance staff

Guidance for Special Education

I received it at 7:40 this morning.

It is a linchpin in our whole plan.

Cohorts

Sabrina and I have finished cohorts.

We are going to email out the assignments again.

Next up, Pods.

Staffing

Teachers on almost every grade are working from home with a DOE granted medical accommodation

Some gaps in staffing.

Michael Cain

Fallon Roher

We have also requested an additional 6 staff members to cover shortages with the models we are being required to implement.
