

Personal Property Disclaimer

The Carmel Central School District is not responsible for loss or damage to students' personal property. This includes, but is not limited to, jewelry, electronic devices, personal accessories, apparel, musical instruments, and athletic equipment. Given the risk of loss or damage, we strongly discourage students from bringing valuable property onto school grounds, even when stored in lockers or closets, unless necessary for instructional or extracurricular purposes.