Sunday, October 28th at 2pm at Music Mountain Theater

DTSPiE has chosen to work with the Music Mountain Theatre this year for our play in an effort to support neighboring businesses.

MMT is located in Lambertville, NJ and has been producing children's theatre for over 15 years. The studio also offers classes in all aspects of performing arts. The team at MMT has been involved in theatre for many years and will bring their collective experience to the production.

Jack and Giant is a delightful musical that will surely delight your audience. The giant is making life pretty miserable for Jack, his mother and the entire kingdom. Jack is even forced to sell his beloved dancing cow for magic beans. And where does Jack go? That's right! Jack goes up the beanstalk and into the castle where he not only fights Gogmagog, the giant, but the malicious Troll as well. By the end of this special tale, the cow is returned, the chicken learns how to lay golden eggs and the good life returns to the kingdom. This show is spiced with a variety of tunes like "Good Things Are Bound To Happen," the Giant's "Fee Fi Fo Fum" or the company's toe-tapping "Run, Jack, Run," that will have adults and children alike humming.
