From the Principal....
April 2019

Dear Parents and Guardians,

If you weren’t available for the March 19 District meeting on Redistricting, I have placed the link in this newsletter on page 4. None of the situations in this plan were voted on yet. You can peruse the various options and maps that were completed and presented this past week.

Secondly, I would like to invite you to the Showcase Shelton event on April 4 at Shelton High School at 6:30. Mrs. Lazdauskas has a group of students performing that evening.

Lastly, I hope you will take part in our One School One Book reading this year. Links are posted on this newsletter.

Wishing everyone a great April break!

Sincerely,

James Zavodjancik, Principal

“20 Smart Ways to Raise a Reader” (adapted)

1.) Limit Screen Time – Although some screen time/play is necessary, limiting it in place of a book is beneficial.

2.) Ask Questions – Stop before and at the end of the story and ask what he/she thinks will happen next.

3.) Read in other places – besides the place set aside in your home (book nook).

4.) Audiobooks – Listen to audiobooks in the car – although not the same as reading aloud – it is better than the alternatives.

5.) Cook Together – integrate math, reading, and direction following when preparing meals.

Working together, we can achieve more! – The PBIS Team

During the month of March, the character word in the spotlight was TEAMWORK! We know how important it is to be able to work collaboratively with others. This is true for teachers and staff as well. Being part of a team, encouraging one another and figuring out problems together is beneficial to everyone. The 21st century world adds demands for high level teamwork skills. Cooperation and collaboration are taught in our classrooms from a very early age. Obtaining and using this core value will ensure that students are college and career ready.

Congratulations to our March Core Character Value winners! These students are fine examples of TEAMWORK! Teachers honored these students by giving them a Spirit Stick and recognition in their classroom.

In the month of April, we will celebrate our good behavior by participating in a fun activity. Keep an eye out for information on this topic! Up next: The core value in the spotlight during the month of April is PATIENCE!

A Mindful Moment

Social-Emotional Learning Tips for Families
By: Kimberly Atkinson

“The most important thing to do when you are feeling overwhelmed is to stop and breathe.”

The first coping action I teach my students is to stop and breathe. That being said, it is difficult to teach this while their minds are clouded by being upset, so you should take the time to teach during a calmer time, so that you can reference these techniques during the trying times and they will be easier to recall.

There are many ways to teach this. This can look like the formal Yoga pose called “Mountain Pose” where students open their feet shoulder-width apart, roll their shoulders back, and take a big belly breath as they stand strong like a mountain. Children can also place one hand on their heart and one hand on their belly (see pictures above), so that they can feel their body inflate and deflate as they breathe. This moves their focus from the problem to their bodies instead. Another way to help children not to breathe too fast, rather let it out slowly, is to use a Hoberman sphere (see picture below). These not only provide a focus point to help redirect the child, but also help with breath pacing. Another technique is to use a glitter jar that you shake up and the children breathe slowly as they watch the glitter fall.

Any of these ideas will work for both you and your child, but the key is to stop and take the time to let yourself or your child breathe and calm down before trying to talk out and solve the problem at hand. Usually it takes just a few breaths and your mind is clear enough to tackle the challenge. Just breathe...
Parent Teacher Organization – PTO

The Parent Teacher Organization is sponsoring an author visit for your child on April 12, 2019. Students will have an opportunity to hear from and discuss the author’s writing in a K-2 and 3-4 session.

The PTO Fun Run is on April 7 (Sunday) from 8-10 at Shelton High School. As of March 19, BHS students have raised over five thousand dollars.

The yearly Scholastic Book Sale will be during the week of March 25. The book sale will be open during conference times on March 28, 2019.

Booth Hill School’s Mission

It is the mission of Booth Hill School to provide a safe and supportive learning environment with high academic standards for all students. In partnership, with staff, parents, and community, we are committed to educating each child academically, socially, and culturally.

Do you know a business or organization that will partner with us to support our District Vocabulary Project Word of the Week? The commitment includes hanging the word in their business each week when sent to them. If you know someone or would like to participate yourself, please email me at JZavodjancik@sheltonpublicschools.org

Our Past Words of the Week for March

- Trust – Firm belief in the reliability, truth, ability, or strength of someone or something.
- Recognition – Identification of a thing or person from previous encounters or knowledge.
- Support – Give assistance to; enable to function or act; a thing that bears the weight of something or keeps it upright.
- Wonderment – A state of awed admiration or respect. A cause of or occasion for wonder; astonishment, surprise.
Student Council News

Over the year, student council has been working hard on multiple projects. We have meetings every other week to discuss what projects we want to organize in order to benefit the community. Some of the projects we have worked on include the book drive, SOUP-er Bowl Day, Valentines for Vets, and finally Daffodil Day!

The book drive was organized to benefit other school libraries that do not have the funds to replace their older books. We collected about 750 books to benefit the other libraries! During Soup-er Bowl day, everybody brought in a can of soup to benefit the Spooner House. We had a total of 548 cans of soup! The Spooner House received the soup and were very thankful! Valentines for Vets was a community event to help those that served in war feel loved. Booth Hill students created beautiful valentines to make their day special. They were delivered to the West Haven Veteran’s Hospital.

Most recently, Student Council sponsored Daffodil Day! We dressed in green and yellow and raised money for the American Cancer Society. BHS raised 263 dollars! We are very proud of this accomplishment.

In April, we will have Freaky Friday! The Friday before April vacation, April 12, 2019 we will dress in a crazy way. Maybe we will wear our clothes backwards or mixed matched socks! This is sure to be a fun spirit-building event in our school! We are collecting a dollar to participate in this special day. Proceeds will benefit the American Red Cross.

Attendance Protocol

All late arrivals (after 9:00AM) and early departures (before 3:45) are considered unexcused. A doctor’s note can excuse a late arrival and/or early departure. It will still be marked in attendance as an excused tardy or early dismissal.

An absence is considered excused when a doctor’s note is received by the school within ten days of the child’s absence.

A student is considered truant when he/she has accumulated four unexcused absences in a month or ten in a year.

A student is considered chronically absent when they have missed ten percent of their enrolled school days.

All absences should be called in by the parent/guardian each day that a child will not be in school. Our phone number is 203-929-5625. Calling in the absences does not mean that it will automatically become an excused absence.

Each trimester the school awards Perfect Attendance Distinction to students who have no absences, late arrivals, or early dismissals. Students must be in school each day, be on time, and never leave early. There can be no excused and/or unexcused codes on the child’s record.

First, a HUGE thank you to our BHS PTO for generously funding new books, a class set of Ozobots, iPad stands, and much-needed book repair supplies for our library. Your support means so much!

We collaborate, create, communicate and think critically:

One School, One Book: Check out the BHS LLC website to hear chapters read by BHS staff, find more information and fun activities.

CONNECTicut Teamwork Traveling Mural: Watching our garden bloom outside the LLC is helping bring an early spring to BHS. Check out photos on our website.

BHS LLC Website: https://goo.gl/s65dCM

Mindfulness Literacy Night: Check out the great books we’re using to promote Habits of Mind, 21st Century Skills and Mindfulness in our classrooms. Again, resources are available on the LLC website.

Shelton Showcase: BHS students showed off what they do in Library Media

Knowledge Constructor: For our final unit in library media, Grades 2-4 will be researching “Passion Projects” to create shared learning experiences. K-1 will be doing their own research projects.
