

South Larose Elementary

2017-2018 Parent and Family Engagement Plan

"Parent and Family Engagement" means the participation of parents in regular, two-way, and meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities

GOAL: To enhance the instructional program and academic achievement of students at South Larose Elementary School by involving parents in all aspects of the school's activities.

OBJECTIVE: The administration, faculty, and staff will provide a variety of programs to promote parent and family engagement to improve the academic performance of students. Documentation of these programs will include sign-in sheets, copies of the monthly school calendar, and school visitations.

South Larose Elementary will adhere to the following ESSA Parent and Family Engagement Federal Program Assurances outlined in Section 1116 of the Every Student Succeeds Act

Part 1: ESSA Parent and Family Engagement Assurances:

- Jointly develop the local educational agency plan under section 112, and the development of support and improvement plans;
- Provide the coordination, technical assistance, and other support necessary to assist and build the capacity of all participating schools within the local educational agency in planning and implementing effective parent and family involvement activities to improve student academic achievement and school performance, which may include meaningful consultation with employees, business leaders, and philanthropic organizations, or individuals with expertise in effectively engaging parents and family members in education;

- Coordinate and integrate parent and family engagement strategies under this part with parent and family engagement strategies, to the extent feasible and appropriate, with other relevant Federal, State, and local laws and programs;
- Conduct, with the meaningful involvement of parents and family members, an annual evaluation for the content and effectiveness of the parent and family engagement policy in improving the academic quality of all schools served under this part, including identifying -
 - i. Barriers to greater participation by parents in activities authorized by this section (with particular attention to parents who are economically disadvantaged, are disabled, have limited English proficiency, have limited literacy, or are of any racial or ethnic minority background);
 - ii. The needs of parents and family members to assist with the learning of their children, including engaging with school personnel and teachers; and
 - iii. Strategies to support successful school and family interactions;
- Use the findings of such evaluation in subparagraph to design evidence-based strategies for more effective parental involvement, and to revise if necessary, the parent and family engagement policies described in this section; and
- Involve parents in the activities of the schools served under this part, which may include establishing a parent advisory board comprised of a sufficient number and representative group of parents or family members served by the local educational agency to adequately represent the needs of the population served by such agency for the purposes of developing, revising, and reviewing the parent and family engagement policy.

Part II: Six Types of Parent & Family Engagement:

South Larose Elementary will utilize the Six Keys to Successful Partnerships to foster Parent and Family Engagement

Standard I:

Parent: Parenting Skills are promoted and supported. South Larose Elementary will:

- Purchase parenting books, magazines, and other informative material regarding responsible parenting
- Advertise current selections, and give parents the opportunity to borrow the materials for review.
- A Parent Center has been developed for parents and families and includes a lending library with materials of interest to parents of pre-adolescent children. Brochures and books that focus on parenting are available for loan through the Parent Center.
- Reading selections from the Parent Center are regularly highlighted in school newsletters to increase parent awareness of the available resources.
- The Parent Center also includes information regarding available community non-profit and private referral sources. This information is disseminated to families as needed.
- The Parent Center houses a designated parent computer.

Standard II:

Communication: Communication between home and school is regular, two-way, and meaningful.

1. The Parent and Family Engagement Program at South Larose Elementary , developed by staff and parents, includes program practices that enhance parent and family engagement and reflects the specific needs of South Larose Elementary students and their families.
2. The Parent and Family Engagement Plan is comprehensive, coordinated and inclusive. Parent and Family Engagement roles are varied.
3. Communication between home and school is regular, two-way and meaningful. To encourage communication with parents, South Larose Elementary will:

Prepare and distribute information packets to each South Larose Elementary family describing:

- South Larose Elementary Parent and Family Engagement Plan/Program
- The various ways parents can volunteer at South Larose Elementary
- Planned parent and family engagement opportunities
- Parent communication methods
- The role of parents, teachers, and students. This information will be sent home in communication folders
- Parent volunteer and interest surveys

Two-Way, Meaningful Communication Methods:

- Weekly communication folders are sent home to parents containing student work for parent comment and review along with other school information.
- The Parent Internet Website provides instant access for parents to view their student's grades, attendance, lunch account information and access tutorial help on the district's web-site:
- South Larose Elementary publishes a monthly calendar to keep parents informed of upcoming events and other school issues. The calendars are sent home monthly in folders and also available to read on the school's web-page.
- Parents are encouraged to sign up for emails or Remind. Teams communicate with parents daily via e-mail/Remind app regarding homework assignments, upcoming projects and parent involvement events.
- Staff member's e-mail addresses can be accessed through school web-page.
- Parents without internet access are encouraged to use a computer designated for their use in the Parent Center.

<http://sles.mylpsd.com>

Standard III:

Volunteering: Parents are welcome in the school and their support and assistance are encouraged.

South Larose Elementary promotes and encourages a welcoming atmosphere to foster parent involvement and volunteer participation.

- South Larose Elementary does not have policies that hinder parent involvement at school.
- The Parent and Family Engagement Contact Person at the school encourages staff members to utilize the Bullpup Club interest sheet sent home, which lists the interests and availability of volunteers.
- The information on the parent survey determines the frequency of each parent's desired participation, and includes the option of volunteering just one time per year, performing the work at home.
- The Parent and Family Engagement Contact person encourages parents to take part in the Bullpup Club, which list ways to volunteer.

Standard IV:

Student Learning: Parents play an integral role in assisting student learning.

In order to promote parents' efforts at South Larose Elementary Parent and Family Engagement meetings are regularly schedules and parents are provided up-dates/ reports on school business and an overview of:

- What student will be learning
- How students will be assessed
- What parents should expect for their child's education
- How parents can assist and make a difference in their children's education

South Larose Elementary schedules regular Parent and Family Engagement meetings, such as:

- Meet the Teacher
- Open House
- Dads on Campus
- Parents in ELA Class
- Parents in Math Class
- Homework Workshop
- Bullying/Social Media Workshop

At these meetings, parents receive a report of the state of the school, building test results, curriculum expectations and standards, how students are assessed, and information regarding how they can help children achieve academically.

Standard V:

School Decision Making and Advocacy: Parents are full partners in the decisions that affect children and families.

South Larose Elementary includes the process for resolving parental concerns which is described in various newsletters, found in the Parenting Center, during the school year. The process includes:

- How to define a problem
- Whom to approach first
- How to develop solutions

Standard VI:

Collaborating with Community: Community resources are used to strengthen schools, families and student learning.

Community resources strengthen school programs, family practices and student learning. To capitalize on community resources, South Larose Elementary:

- Encourages and supports the Bullpup Club, which fosters parental and community involvement at South Larose Elementary.
- Bullpup Club leaders' input is sought and utilized in appropriate decisions affecting students and families.
- Solicits community support and assistance with academic programming, extra curricula activities, fund raisers, and etc.

Part III: School-Parent Compact

As a component of the school-level parental involvement plan, each school will jointly develop, with parents for all children served under this part, a school-parent compact that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement.

*A copy of the South Larose Elementary School Compact is attached to this plan.

This school Parent and Family Engagement Plan has been developed jointly with, and in agreement with parents of students at ABC School, a Title I school, as evidenced by the list of parent participants below.

This plan was adopted by the school on August 9, 2017, and will be in effect for the 2017-2018 school year. A complete Summary of this plan will be distributed to ALL parents at ABC School, a Title I school, on or before September 15, 2017. The entire detail plan will be on the school website at <http://sles.mylpsd.com> and will be available in the school office no later than September 15, 2017.

Principal

Date

School Level PI Contact

Date

School Improvement Plan Parent Representative

Date

to the following parents for their willingness to give their time and effort in providing input for the development of this School Parent and Family Engagement Plan.

Randi Robert, Mallory Griffin, and Scarlet Griffin.