Alternative Exiting Credentials

There are currently two credentials available: the CDOS commencement credential and the Skills and Achievement commencement credential, described further below. Alternative exiting credentials are not equivalent to a high school diploma. Students who receive these credentials are eligible to continue attending school until they earn a high school diploma or until the end of the full school year in which they turn 21 (whichever occurs first). These credentials may only be awarded after at least 12 years of education, excluding kindergarten. For more information on these credentials, students should ask their school.

Career Development & Occupational Studies (CDOS) Commencement Credential

Recognizes students' preparation for entry-level work through mastery of the CDOS learning standards. Students may receive this credential upon completion of a career plan, employability profile, and 216 hours of career preparation experiences, including at least 54 hours of school-supported work-based learning. This credential may be awarded as the sole exiting credential, as an endorsement to a diploma, or as a +1 option (see the reverse side for more information).

Skills & Achievement Commencement Credential

Recognizes students' skills and achievements in academic, career development, and other foundations needed for post-school living, learning, and working. This credential may only be awarded to students with severe cognitive disabilities who participate in the New York State Alternate Assessment (NYSAA).

¹ The number of credits required for State-approved Career and Technical Education (CTE) sequences varies depending on the specific program of study. Students may be required to earn more than 44 total credits in order to graduate with a CTE endorsement. Students in CTE programs should ask their school about these requirements.

² A student whose IEP indicates a disability that adversely affects his or her ability to learn a language may be exempted from the LOTE requirement but must still earn 44 total credits.

³ Students completing an Arts or CTE endorsement with the advanced Regents diploma are required to complete only 2 credits of LOTE. See reverse for more information about these endorsements.
