Dear Uniondale Community and Staff:

The NCDOH informed the District this morning that it has confirmed that two other students in the District have come into contact with individuals outside the District who have tested positive for coronavirus. The students are both asymptomatic, but as a precautionary measure, the NCDOH has instructed each student to remain in quarantine at their respective homes until further notice as in the case of the other students.

The District continues to monitor the developments surrounding the Coronavirus.

Thank you,
