Entrepreneurship

Today, there are more than 400 million entrepreneurs around the world -- that means one in every 18 person owns a business, according to statistics compiled by dealsunny.com. That number is only growing. Many people are leaving their nine-to-five jobs to pursue their own entrepreneurial journeys¹

In an innovation economy, there are no traditional paths to success. To activate the entrepreneurial mindset in young people, NFTE's Pathway begins by igniting the imagination then takes students through the journey of creating and refining an original business concept. VE provides a solution for schools to offer all students meaningful skills-based career experiences. Through our hands-on, task-based curricula, students test drive potential careers and develop in-demand skills and competencies that post-secondary institutions and employers are seeking. By managing the day-to-day operations of a company, students not only develop business skills and an entrepreneurial mindset, they also identify career pathways that align with their interests, talents, and aspirations.

Academy of Finance

Employment of financial analysts is projected to grow 11 percent from 2016 to 2026, faster than the average for all occupations. A growing range of financial products and the need for in-depth knowledge of geographic regions are expected to lead to strong employment growth.²

Connects high school students with the world of financial services and personal finance, offering a curriculum that covers banking and credit, financial planning, global finance, securities, insurance, accounting, and economics. The NAF Academy of Finance curriculum and certification is validated by the Council for Economic Education.

Academy of Hospitality & Tourism

Hospitality & tourism is part of the service-providing industries, which are projected to account for most of the job growth in the economy between 2016 and 2026. Travel and tourism directly contributed 5.29 million jobs to the U.S. economy in 2017 and 7.6 trillion U.S. dollars to the economy in 2016.

Helps students chart career paths in one of the world's largest industries, from hotel and event management to sports and entertainment, and includes the study of geography, economics, and world cultures. The NAF Academy of Hospitality & Tourism curriculum has received industry validation from the Global Travel and Tourism Partnership (GTTP).
