

NAF PRESENTS THE TOASTMASTERS YOUTH LEADERSHIP 1.0 PROGRAM

A series of 8 public speaking workshops that take place on Saturday mornings at a Manhattan NYC Public High School. Workshops are structured supportive groups with fun themes around public speaking.

- Students will be guided, supported and encouraged in their goals.
- Students will learn through experience of giving speeches to practice and improve.
- Students will learn through honest supportive peer evaluation to grow and develop.
- Students will get a certificate of completion as well as present their public speaking skills on graduation day.
- Toastmasters Alumni have the opportunity to join the Fall 2.0 program.

The Toastmasters Youth Leadership Program enables participants to develop communication and leadership skills through practical experience. In fostering the development of public speaking skills, students are able to deliver speeches and presentations with confidence while gaining leadership skills to help them advance in their professional lives.
