Student Stuff...

Hey KES'ers! Don't forget we are doing the pledge every Friday at 9:30. Last week James wanted me to go down the slide. (Secret- I didn't do it because I had PJ bottoms on! LOL!) So this Friday I do the pledge and go down the slide. Make sure a parent helps you go to the Kent Elementary School 6C's Facebook page so you can join us! Email Phys Ed pics to Coach C so he can share them with the district on Twitter and Facebook. Have a parent snap a pic for you and send it in.

Everyone loves seeing what you are up to with your physical activities! Miss you tons and I love you even more! Stay strong, we'll be back together again, I promise. XO

Updates...

~After a review of the results of the Distance Learning Survey, changes were made to the plan including an additional "Facetime" and adjustments to the instruction offered. These changes will be presented at the BOE meeting on May 26th, not the 19th as previously stated. Meetings are live streamed on the CCSD website.

~Memorial Day, Monday, May 25th is a no school day. Teachers will not be assigning work for that day. Enjoy a day of down time and relax a little bit with the kiddos!

~Any child who was referred for a SPED evaluation is in "holding." Our SPED office will be resuming with evaluations upon return as there is no way to test students remotely.

~If you need more support for your child, or are struggling to keep up, please email your teacher directly. We are here to help and will do all we can to ensure our children, and you, are supported!

~I will be hosting a second grade read aloud coming soon! ☺ An email with an invite will follow for those students.

Student Belongings...

Teachers have started the very sad task of cleaning out classrooms to close them for the school year. ☹ Parents will be able to pick up student belongings next week according to grade. For parents who have children in different grades, you will need to come at multiple times as trying to bundle families together was logistically impossible to maintain an organized pick up and prevent cross contamination between classrooms. Details are in a separate attachment. Medications will also be available for pick up on June 8th between 10 and 12 at Kent Primary School, not our school. A call will be made as a reminder the week before.
