

Hello, my name is Sandy Mislow.

I'm an advocate for people with disabilities.

Services Include:

- Advocacy support in IEP/504/CSE meetings
- Interpretation of evaluation and assessment reports; guidance on using them to obtain services and accommodations
- Coaching support for parents/guardians in becoming effective child advocates
- Guidance in the development of strategic planning prior to school meetings
- Consultation and training with after-school programs in providing the necessary supports for your child
- Workshops and presentations
- Referrals to academic help and educational evaluators
- Liaison to legal counsel

Why work with me?

I've spent my entire professional career sharing and broadening my passion for disability rights through various roles including special education teacher, staff development trainer, quality oversight manager, inclusion initiatives director, social skills group leader and overall advocate for kids and adults with disabilities.

I now continue to spread this passion by helping children with disabilities and their families get the support they deserve.
