

PTO PULSE

Black History Month

Cold days bring a change of plans! The Black History Month Committee is working hard to reschedule their kick-off pep rally for Friday, February 8.

In-class activities are still on schedule for the week of February 11 and volunteers are needed. Please use this link to signup for volunteer slot: http://signup.com/go/QDiRdhj

Box Tops

Our Winter Box Top Drive kicked off January 28! Box Tops will be collected through February 15. Our grand prize is lunch with Dr. Dallacqua! Be sure when sending in Box Tops that they are labeled with your students name. Thank you to all of our families for clipping Box Tops, and to all of our classroom coordinators who help count all of them!

Literacy Night

Save The Date! Literacy Night takes place Thursday, March 7. Our teacher committee is working hard to plan a fun and engaging evening.

Silent Auction

Our annual silent auction is back during Literacy Night on Thursday, March 7. Some old favorites and some exciting new items – A Ride To School In A Fire Truck, Joffrey Ballet Tickets, Disney World Tickets, Flossmoor Baseball & Softball Registration, A Chicago Bulls VIP Experience, A Weekend Out in Homewood - including a stay at LaBanque, brunch at LaVoute, and drinks at Copper Still, and A Cooks Night Off - including Supper Club from Dunning's Market, drinks from The Bistro On Sterling, and desert from Panda Baby Cookies.

Book Fair

Save The Date! Our Spring Book Fair is scheduled for March 6 & 7.

One School One Book is now One District One Book

Exciting news...One School One Book is now One District One Book. We are thrilled to read a book with the all of the elementary schools. The program will kick-off in April. More information to come in March!
