IB LEARNER PROFILE

Communicator
Reflective
Balanced
Principled
Thinker
Knowledgeable
Caring
Open-minded
Risk-taker
Inquirer
This year we will be using the Advisory period to focus on each IB Learner profile--our first one will be:

OPEN-MINDED

2
What do you see?

3
What do you see?
What do you see?
Firstly, identify what you see?

What were the features that lead you to that conclusion?
Essential Question

How can we begin to understand differences in how we see things in life?
We use a Native American tradition of the talking stick. You sit and pass it around and whoever has the stick has to talk. Some people just hold it. Others really share.

Lisa Bonet
American Actress
Discussion Questions

- What would happen if everyone saw the picture in the same way?

- Can there be more than one answer to a question? Give some examples that you know

- Is it OK to disagree? How do we politely disagree with someone?

- Can we still be friends with someone we disagree with?

- What is the value of talking to someone who you do not agree with?
Discussion Questions (continued)

- How can looking at things in a new or different way change us?

- How do different viewpoints impact your beliefs?

- Are there times when there is no right or wrong answer? Can you give examples?

- What are multiple points of view?
Helping Kids to Make Meaningful Connections
"He has a very open mind. Everything goes in one ear and out the other."