Concern over COVID-19 (Coronavirus) can make children and families anxious. When speaking to your child about this new virus, remember that it is important to make yourself available and to remain calm and reassuring. Also consider limiting television viewing or access to information on the Internet and through social media. For more information on how to speak to your child about COVID-19, please click on the following link https://www.nasponline.org/resources-and-publications/resources-and-podcasts/school-climate-safety-and-crisis/health-crisis-resources/talking-to-children-about-covid-19-\(coronavirus\)-a-parent-resource-a-parent-resource). In the event that your student is having additional concerns, our mental health providers will be available to students and parents for the duration of this health situation. Please contact your school's mental health provider(s) by phone or by using the e-mails below to set up an appointment to speak.
