Annotated Bibliography
Homeroom teachers will notify students about Capstone Project approvals. Students should not begin fieldwork hours until projects have been approved.

Remember to fill out fieldwork time log with your mentor as you complete your hours (page 17 in handbook).

All materials for Capstone can be found on the SHS website in the Capstone Quick Link. http://sheltonhigh.sheltonpublicschools.org/home_page
You will complete three journal entries at different points in your fieldwork experience. They each must be at least one page, typed, double-spaced, and 12 point font.

Journal entries reflect on fieldwork and are a personal account of the Capstone experience. They also will include references to Habits of Mind.

These entries are an opportunity for you to share your impressions of the Capstone process. They specifically should focus on thoughts and observations about the fieldwork experiences.

A sample journal entry is located on pages 22 and 23 in handbook.

DUE OCTOBER 16th, JANUARY 7th, and MARCH 3rd
The first entry should discuss the beginning of your Capstone fieldwork and may include some information about your topic and mentor selection. Also, discuss 2 of the following Habits of Mind that you utilized during this part of the project: thinking flexibly, thinking interdependently, persisting, questioning and problem posing, and responding with wonderment and awe.

Due by Wednesday, October 16, 2019

Annotated Bibliography
(pages 18 & 19 in handbook)
DUE TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 2019

• With your mentor’s assistance, find two credible and relevant sources to assist you in the completion of your Capstone project.

• Think of resources that might provide you with good information on your topic--books, articles, websites, videos, etc. You must choose two different source types (ex. an article and a website).

• The bibliography portion of the annotated bibliography is a list of sources using proper MLA format. You also may have heard of this list referred to as the Work Cited Page.

Note: EasyBib is a free citation generator. Use the correct format for the type of source (e.g. website, magazine article, book).

• The difference between an annotated and a non-annotated bibliography is that in an annotated bibliography the publication information about your source is followed with a summary and evaluation of the material.
The Annotation

To add the annotation:

• Double space after the bibliographic information.

• Paragraph form, Times New Roman size 12 font

• You can have more than one paragraph. If only one, it should be at least five sentences.
What to Include: Summary and Evaluation

Summary

• What topics are covered?
• What information is contained in the source?
Evaluation

• How might you use this source to help you complete your Capstone project?
• Is the information relevant?
• How credible and accurate is the information?
This book has everything a beginning coach needs to help kids learn soccer basics. There are over 75 drills to use in practices, and many skills are addressed throughout this 130 page book. The illustrations also help to emphasize what is important to teach young soccer players. There is a good review of all the rules of soccer in the book as well. The step by step points were helpful as I began to work with my group of kids. While I have played soccer for more than 10 years, I had never really tried to teach 5 and 6 year olds to play. This book was a great resource to consult throughout my creation of and instruction in my volunteer soccer camp.
Remember to Use Formal Writing Rules

• No slang or texting abbreviations.
• Proper capitalization, punctuation, and spelling
• No contractions:
  Incorrect: The author didn’t prove his theory.
  Correct: The author did not prove his theory.
