Dear Incoming Students,

Welcome to IS 27. I wish the circumstances were different and we could be meeting in person but allow this letter to officially welcome you to the IS 27 community. The transition into middle school is tough enough, without the added unknown of what September will bring- so please know- the IS 27 staff is prepared and ready to welcome you. Rest assured, before you step foot into IS 27, you will have all the information you need to transition to middle school.

My intention is to hold an orientation prior to the start of school, preferably during the first week of September. I would like to conduct this orientation in the auditorium of IS 27, however, if need be, we will conduct it virtually. Please visit IS27.org periodically over the summer for messages and summer reading assignments. Be sure to check our website, IS27.org, during the week of August 17th, when a final decision will be made on orientation. Details for orientation will be posted directly to the website.

Respectfully,

Matthew Barone
