

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

ACCOUNTING (Elective)

Course #451

Credit: 1.0

This senior elective provides the students with a sound basic knowledge of accounting terms, concepts and procedures. The topics discussed include professional business ethics. The students will also gain a familiarity with the features of spreadsheet software.

PERSONAL FINANCE (Elective)

Course #465

Credit: 0.5

This semester course is open to seniors. It covers the most fundamental aspects of personal finance for graduate life. Topics covered range from personal budgeting, credit card rates and debt, loans, repayments, credit building and debt management.