BEHAVIORAL EXPECTATIONS

TTCS STUDENTS FOLLOW THE HIGH 5 RULES:

BE RESPONSIBLE

BE RESPECTFUL

HANDS AND FEET TO SELF

FOLLOW DIRECTIONS

BE THERE, BE READY

In addition, TTCS students are expected to:

- Attend all scheduled classes
- Be on time to every scheduled class
- Wear appropriate school attire
- Be respectful in language and behavior to all adults
- Maintain appropriate classroom behavior, and not disrupt learning
- Use polite and respectful language at all times
- Use electronic devices when permitted for educational purposes and only at permitted times and in permitted areas.
- Follow computer and internet use policy
- Behave in an appropriate manner, without public display of affection or sexual behaviors.

TTCS DRESS CODE

The purpose of the TTCS dress code is to enhance school safety, improve the learning environment, and promote good behavior. Children's attitudes toward schoolwork and behavior are related to the clothing that they wear. Therefore, we recommend clothing and footwear suitable for a working atmosphere and appropriate weather. In order to achieve this goal, the following guidelines are in place at Turquoise Trail Charter School:

Shirts, Coats

- Shirts with sleeves are recommended

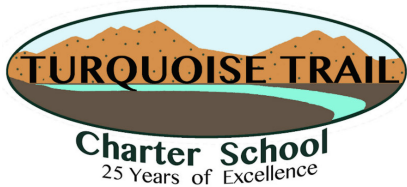

- Halter, tank, and thin-strapped tops are not permitted.
- Sleeveless athletic jerseys must be worn with a t-shirt underneath
- Jackets and coats (outerwear) may not be worn indoors during school day – children who get cold easily should bring a sweater or sweatshirt to wear inside.
- Pants, Shorts, Skirts
- Pants and shorts need to fit snugly at the waist
- Sagging clothing is not acceptable
- Extremely brief shorts and short skirts are not appropriate for school – mid-thigh length or longer is appropriate

Shoes

- Tennis shoes or sturdy, form-fitting shoes are recommended for the school day
- No backless or high-heeled shoes are permitted
- Flip flops are not permitted; sandals with back straps can be worn
- No shoes with wheels (can be worn if wheels are removed)

General

- Tops and bottoms must overlap at all times, including when arms are raised
- Hats, caps, hoods, and other headwear may not be worn during the school day unless for school-sponsored activities

The following items are inappropriate for school and therefore not permitted.

- Visible body piercing other than in ears
- Clothing that is in disrepair, ripped, or contains holes
- Any article of clothing or accessory that promotes drugs, alcohol, tobacco, sex, violence or is offensive or degrading
- Anything that may cause a distraction to the educational process or is deemed inappropriate or unsafe.
- This dress code does not regulate the exercise of an individual's sincerely held religious beliefs.

SERIOUS OFFENSES

TTCS considers the following actions, and any other offenses that are possibly punishable by law, to be serious and shall be thoroughly investigated by school officials and reported to law enforcement when appropriate. A formal long-term suspension/expulsion hearing may be conducted for the following serious offenses:

- Possession/use of weapons or facsimile weapons
- Possession/use/distribution of illegal drugs, alcohol, and/or tobacco, including e-cigarettes (see Substance Use/Abuse/Drugs. Alcohol, Tobacco for specifics)

Text messaging is specifically prohibited during instructional time. Failure to comply with rules for possession/use of a cellular phone or other electronic device at school, will result in revocation of permission to have the device at school.

EMERGENCIES

Use of cellular telephones during emergency drills is prohibited for reasons of safety and security. Text messaging during emergencies is also prohibited

PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES

Cell phones may not be used to threaten, intimidate, or in other way violate the security, safety and well being of others on school campuses. Cellphones will not be used to take pictures of students, faculty, or staff that are considered sexually offensive, provocative, disrespectful, or otherwise inappropriate. Recording of any employee without prior written permission is strictly forbidden. Cellphones used for such purposes will be confiscated and students will be banned from future use. Confiscated cellphones will be returned to students and/or their parents following the guidelines set forth in the Student Code of Conduct.

PROTECTION OF PROPERTY

Students are expected to recognize the property rights of other students, staff members, and anyone else present on TTCS property by: 1) Using property for its intended purposes without damage to the property; 2) using property belonging to others only with permission of owner or person in charge of property; and, 3) reporting to school officials situations which may result in damage to, loss of, or misuse of property. Parents and guardians may be held responsible for replacement cost of damaged or missing items.

- No student will display or draw inappropriate images
- No student will write or draw on school property (graffiti)
- No student will write or draw on non-TTCS public or private property (graffiti) when participating in school activities
- All students will use school property only as instructed and allowed

ABOUT THE BEHAVIORAL EXPECTATIONS

At TTCS we expect excellent behavior. We believe in maintaining a culture of respect and responsibility. TTCS is a "school of choice", rather than an assigned district school. By choosing to enroll your child in our school, you show that you understand and agree to abide by all expectations outlines in this handbook. Turquoise Trail Charter School (TTCS) has a discipline committee that works on revisions and improvements to policy, and helps set clear guidelines and expectations for student behavior. Our goal is to establish expectations for the behavior of TTCS students that supports access to learning for all and creates a strong community.

School rules apply to students whenever students are: (1) present on TTCS or other school property, (2) present at any school – sponsored activity or event, regardless of location, or (3) off campus, including traveling directly to and from school.

I HAVE READ AND UNDERSTAND THE CODE OF CONDUCT AND TTCS BEHAVIORAL EXPECTATIONS I, the undersigned, agree to all aforementioned rights, responsibilities and commitments: Student's
