

Summary From The Student Handbook
Condensed Version 2020-2021
Yough Intermediate Middle School

The complete version 2020-2021 Yough Intermediate School Handbook is located on the Middle School webpage and in each student's Google HOMEROOM Classroom. This summary is to only highlight changes, often asked questions, or other school related items. Hard copies are available upon request in the Middle School Office.

Attendance

- Tardiness – Any student entering school AFTER 8:05 must sign in at the office. AN EXCUSE WILL BE REQUIRED for the tardiness. Missing the bus, sleeping in, loitering in the halls or car problems are not acceptable excuses and therefore will be considered unexcused tardiness. Lunch Detention will be assigned for unexcused tardiness after the 5 offenses. Late students are responsible for the classroom work. For example, if a student enters period three, the student must check with the period two teacher for missed assignments.
- Absence Procedure:
 - After a tardy/absence from school, the parent/guardian must complete the reason for absence via the online absentee form located on the school website. The excuse should explain the reason and give the date or dates of the absence.
 - If a student DOESN'T BRING A WRITTEN EXCUSE IN WITHIN THREE SCHOOL DAYS, the absence will be changed to unexcused or illegal. The student will not be permitted to make-up work assigned on a day or days of unexcused absence.
- An absence from school without the knowledge or consent of the parent/ guardian is considered truancy
- Students are responsible to make up work missed because of absences. In case of an unexcused absence, WORK CANNOT be made up and students will not receive credit.
- Student requests for work can be called into the office after three days absent. Parents may email staff for missed assignments at any time. Students on a vacation request form are responsible for gathering work prior to the absences. Please arrange a time for parents to pick up work in the office or via the Google Classroom.
- Students participating in athletics/extracurriculars must report to school prior to the start of period 5 to be eligible for participation. Unless a doctor's note is provided.
- Please see the full attendance policy on the school district website for other information.

Early Dismissal

EARLY DISMISSAL FROM SCHOOL

Early dismissal will be granted for the same reasons allowable for legal absences. You are encouraged to schedule appointments with your doctor or dentist other than school hours. However, when emergency demands, the appointment should be made as early or late in the school day as possible. Also, parents MUST CALL the School office to verify this appointment. No student will be permitted to leave the building for an early dismissal if a parent/guardian has not been contacted or present in the office/ mouse trap for pick up.

To obtain an early dismissal, a parent must complete the online early dismissal form located on the school's webpage or call the office for assistance:

1. Full name of student
2. Date of early dismissal
3. Time of early dismissal
4. Reason for early dismissal (name of doctor/dentist, if applicable)
5. Signature of parent or guardian
6. Home/business phone number

Any student granted permission to leave the building because of illness, early dismissal or other emergencies MUST SIGN OUT AT THE SCHOOL OFFICE prior to leaving. Also, upon returning to school after early dismissal of the same day, a student is required to SIGN IN AT THE SCHOOL OFFICE. Verification of student's doctors' or dentists' appointments should accompany students upon returning to school.

Student Behavior

Students are expected to exemplify the best in behavior. The rules and regulations in regards to behavior exist to create a positive and effective school and classroom environment. Students who violate the expected behaviors will face disciplinary measures ranging from a teacher phone call, parent meetings, loss of privilege, Bus Suspension, In School suspension, Out of School suspension, and possible expulsion based on the severity of the situation.

All school property and materials are to be respected. Deliberate and accidental loss or damage to school property is the responsibility of the student. Restitution for costs will be the responsibility of the student or parent/guardian. Items that have no educational value should not be brought to school.

Withdrawal of privileges

Classroom teachers may withdraw student privileges such as recess or period 10 opportunities. Bathroom privileges can never be revoked. Continued behaviors will result in the building principals removing privileges. These may include, but are not excluded to: removal from clubs, lunch detention, attending dances, field trips, assemblies or other school related functions. The principal reserves the right to remove these privileges may be removed for poor academic performance.

Bullying

Bullying means an intentional electronic, written, verbal or physical act or series of acts directed at another student or students, which occurs in a school setting that is severe, persistent or pervasive and has the effect of doing any of the following:

1. Substantial interference with a student's education.
2. Creation of a threatening environment.
3. Substantial disruption of the orderly operation of the school.

Bullying, as defined in this policy, includes cyber bullying.

School setting means: in the school, on school grounds, in school vehicles, at a designated bus stop or at any activity sponsored, supervised or sanctioned by the school. The Middle School prohibits all forms of bullying by district students.

The Middle School encourages students who have been bullied to promptly report such incidents to the building principal or designee.

The Middle School directs that complaints of bullying shall be investigated promptly and corrective action shall be taken when allegations are verified.

Confidentiality of all parties shall be maintained, consistent with the district's legal and investigative obligations. No reprisals or retaliation shall occur as a result of good faith reports of bullying. Each student shall be responsible to respect the rights of others and to ensure an atmosphere free from bullying.

Lost Articles

Students and parents should inquire about lost items. After 30 days the school is not responsible for unclaimed items. All lost items will be located in the library. Lost electronic devices will be located in the office.

Electronic Devices/BYOD

The Middle School prohibits use of personal communication devices by students during the school day in district buildings, on district property, and while students are attending school-sponsored activities unless participating in a BYOD activity or given prior permission from staff or administration. Such devices shall be stored in the student's locker during the school day. The Middle School prohibits use of cellular telephones to take photographs or record audio or video during the school day in district buildings, on district property, busses, and while the students are engaged in school-sponsored activities unless granted permission for an educational purpose. Such devices shall be stored in the student's locker during the school day. In addition, the Middle School prohibits possession and use by students any device that provides for a wireless, unfiltered connection to the internet. The district shall not be liable for the loss, damage or misuse of any electronic device brought to school by a student. Violations of the acceptable use policy by a student shall result in disciplinary action and confiscation of the electronic device.

Consequences that do not violate the acceptable use policy will be the following:

- a. 1st offense: Disciplinary referral: Item sent to the office, parent contacted by administration, student pick up at the end of the day.
- b. 2nd Offense- Disciplinary referral: Item sent to the office, parent contacted by administration, student pick up at the end of the day, lunch detention.
- c. 3rd Offense: Disciplinary referral: Item sent to the office, parent contacted by administration, student pick up at the end of the day, continued loss of privileges and Saturday detention served for insubordination.

Emergency messages for the students will be delivered promptly and privately. Students required to carry a phone for medical purposes must contact the middle school office.

Cheating, Plagiarism and Late Assignments

If a student is caught in any situation in regards to cheating and plagiarism, the offenses will be:

-The student will be given a zero for the assignment and a teacher will contact the parent.

Middle School procedure in regards to late work is the following unless a specific academic, behavioral or special circumstance arises:

-One day late: No more than 75 percent credit may be given.

-Two days late: No more than 50 percent credit may be given.

-Three days late: No more than 25 percent credit may be given.

-Four days late or longer: No credit will be given.
