

Here is some Expert Advice!

New Teachers-

You'll probably have more teachers in middle school. Having more teachers can make the day a lot more interesting. But it will also mean that you have more teachers to adjust to. Pay special attention the first few weeks of school to learn what each of your teachers expect.

New Classes-

More homework
More work on your own
Classes that are more challenging

New Friends-

Let's face it. Everyone in middle school is worried about having friends and fitting in. Just remember, everyone in your grade is new to middle school and everyone is a little nervous.
