

RESPECT FOR ALL WEEK

FEBRUARY 11-15, 2019

Respect for All Week is a tradition in the New York City Department of Education where schools take the time to teach and celebrate actions that show our respect of others.

This year at PS 59 we will celebrate each day of Respect For All Week with our action and clothing! Here is a list of what you can wear or what actions you can take to celebrate each day of Respect for All Week!

Monday, February 11th 	Mismatch Monday Being Different is okay! Dare to be different and come to school in mismatched clothing. Be sure to hand in your "Respect Differences, Be A Friend" poster. They will be hung up in the cafeteria.
Tuesday, February 12th 	Remember The Golden Rule Wear something yellow or gold as a reminder that The Golden Rule is most important. "Treat others the way that you want to be treated."
Wednesday, February 13th 	Cultural Appreciation Day Show us why you're proud of your heritage! Diversity comes from more than just culture, so feel free to dress in other ways that make you feel unique.
Thursday, February 14th 	Kindness Day Wear Red & Pink to school. Show others you care by saying or doing something nice for them.
