- Progress Reports for Semester 2 will be posted on April 18. This is a great time for families to sign up for an NYC SCHOOLS ACCOUNT. An NYC Schools Account (NYCSA) is a web-based application that lets parents see their child's academic and biographic information on any computer, phone, or tablet. The application is also translated into nine languages other than English. Click NYC Schools Account NYCS to get started. If you need assistance please reach out to Rita, our Parent Coordinator at rita@facinghistoryschool.org

- NYC Public Schools, which includes The Facing History School are closed starting tomorrow, Monday, March 16th - Sunday, April 19th. Schools aim to re-open on Monday, April 20th.
- Grab and go breakfast and lunch will be served at schools starting tomorrow, Monday, March 16th until further notice.
- This is not time off. Remote and/or online learning will begin Monday, March 23rd through Wednesday, April 8th. This isn't optional; this is required. We will email student email accounts about what this will look like at The Facing History School. Students should please fill out form sent to their Facing History School email address titled Student Form on Internet Access & Computers at Home.
- For this week (03/16 - 03/20) in terms of work and learning, students should be working on the paper assignments given to them on Friday, March 13th in all their classes, OR they should be checking Google Classroom for what you teacher is assigning them to do
- We urge students to stay on top of their work and learning during this time. This is not a break. They will be responsible for their work and learning. Grades will still be entered.
