

The following amendments will be added to the Parent-Student Handbook, under “Code of Conduct”:

A homework notice is given to students who do not turn in assignments in the time period specified. Three homework notices equal one demerit. If a homework notice is not returned to school, signed by a parent, on the next school day following that on which it was issued, it becomes a demerit.

A uniform violation is issued to students out of school uniform. Three uniform violations equal one demerit. If a uniform violation is not returned to school, signed by a parent, on the next school day following that on which it was issued, it becomes a demerit.
