Auto Disciplina

Self Discipline

Autodisciplina significa tener control sobre nosotros mismos. Significa que hacemos lo que realmente queremos hacer, no lo que nuestros emociones nos ordenan hacer, moviéndonos de acá para allá, como hojas al viento. No perdemos el control cuando estamos enojados o nos sentimos heridos. Más bien, decidimos cómo vamos a hablar y qué vamos a hacer.

Tengo autodisciplina.
Aprovecho bien el tiempo y
logro bastante.
Escojo actuar con
imparcialidad.

Self-discipline is self-control. It means we take charge of our emotions; not letting them “carry us away”. It means we set healthy rules or goals for ourselves, and do what is necessary to accomplish them. It also means we choose to follow the rules of society so that we become responsible members of our community. When we are self-disciplined we know how we feel, what we want for ourselves and what we want to see in the world around us.

Chita Rivera

Chita Rivera is regarded as an “American national treasure” and Broadway’s most accomplished dancer, actress, and singer. Rivera became a star with her thrilling performance in the 1957 Broadway premiere of West Side Story. Given America’s highest civilian honor, the Presidential Medal of Freedom, in 2009, Chita was recognized as an “agent of change” who wasn’t afraid to break ground as a Hispanic woman. Even today, she refuses to limit herself.
