

Grade 1 March Goals

Reading: Your child will be able to identify similarities and differences in a text using key details in the story. Your child will be using graphic organizers such as Venn Diagrams to classify their information.

Writing: Your child will participate in creating a personal narrative based on their own experiences.

Math: Your child will be able to identify place value (tens and ones) in two digit numbers.

Science: Your child will be able to identify properties of light and sound.

Social Studies: Your child will be able to identify similarities and differences about life now and long ago.