

Grade 1 December Goals

Reading:

- Your child will be able to identify and retell the different parts of a story. (Story Structure)
- Your child will be able to identify author's purpose and details.
- Your child will be able to identify cause and effect.
- Your Child will be able to identify Text and Graphic features.
- Your Child will be able to identify transitional words such as first, next, then and last.

Writing:

- Your child will learn to create an Informational piece of writing by using facts and research.

Math:

- Your child will be able to use addition and subtraction strategies within 20 to solve word problems.

Science:

- Your child will learn the properties of matter and how matter can change in different ways.

Social Studies:

- Your child will study their past to learn how families grow and change over time.