As we celebrate the Global Read Aloud, the Pocantico PTA has invited Aisha Saeed to visit Pocantico Hills. We are all excited to meet her!

All classes 3-8 are reading Amal Unbound in our classrooms. Most teachers are reading aloud this powerful story to our students. We have also been learning about the culture of Pakistan through the characters.

3rd, 4th, 6th and 7th graders are making Henna Hands in art class with Mrs. Morotti. All of these will be hung by the auditorium for the visit. In addition, all classes will help make two very large hands for the auditorium doors with a welcome banner for the author.

Students are making laddu in FACS with Mrs. Greene. They are delicious treats mentioned in the book that are traditionally served during festivities.

Chef Kassie is also preparing a special dish for the day of the author visit traditional to Pakistan. You can look forward to Chicken or Chickpea Komra with Jasmine Rice and Turmeric Roasted Cauliflower or Roasted Peas.

It's going to be a great celebration! Please plan on joining us!
