

New Rochelle High School
Senior Awards

The following is the complete list of awards bestowed at the New Rochelle High School Class of 2018 Senior Awards Assembly and Senior Awards Ceremony on June 11, 2018:

DEPARTMENTAL AWARDS

ENGLISH

- 1. The Spoken Arts, Inc. Prize in Literature is awarded to the students, who in the judgment of the English Department, show outstanding promise in the study of English. $100 each is awarded to Abigail Rogot and Leija Rothenberg.

- 2. The Frederick Julian Steinhardt English Prize is given by the estate of Samuel C. Steinhardt in honor of his son, Class of 1926, for outstanding work in English composition. $100 is awarded to Emma Mandella.

- 3. The Gabriel Garcia Marquez Award is presented to students who combine outstanding academic scholarship with unique personal integrity, generosity of spirit, passion for making a difference, and boundless potential. Awarded to Christopher Gonzales and Zoe Steffensen.

- 4. The Virginia Woolf Award is presented to students for being inspirational readers of creative vision, original thought, probing intelligence, and spirited curiosity. Awarded to Alexandra Kendall, Caleb Peeples, and Mario Sanabria.

5. The F. Scott Fitzgerald Award is presented to students who demonstrate sensitive and intelligent responses to literature, refined aesthetic sensibility, a sense of wonder and an appreciation of language. Awarded to Rachel Darius and Jeremy Tesler.

6. The Mary Jane Reddington Award is presented to students who appreciate the beauty of the written word, read with insight, write with passion, and think with originality. Awarded to Jency Maldonado and Sol Munguia.

7. The James Baldwin Foundation Award is given to students who express a commitment to personal excellence, openness to the ideas of others, and passion for learning. Awarded to Ethan Berenbaum and Ulric Hamlet, Jr.

8. The American Association of University Women Excellence in Writing Award is presented to a senior who fulfills the state writing standards of excellence in academic writing and who is recognized for writing superior short stories, poetry, personal essays or plays. A book and a certificate are awarded to Katherine Haley.

9. The Julia Alvarez Award is presented to students who combine outstanding academic scholarship with unique personal integrity, generosity of spirit, passion for making a difference, and boundless potential. Award to Maria Baratau, Kimberly Collins, Benjamin Long, and Claudia Marcelin.

10. The Dr. Mary Grantham-Campbell Memorial Award is given to the student who has demonstrated growth in writing. $200 is presented to Cynthia Roque Diaz.

11. The Zora Neale Hurston Award is presented to scholars whose high academic achievement in English is complemented by their outstanding character, insatiable curiosity, and intellectual commitment to personal excellence. Awarded to Realm Codling and Makhel Wilson.

12. The Rochellean Journalism Award is given to a student who has made outstanding contributions to the production of the 2018 Yearbook. A plaque and $300 are presented to editor-in-chief Yohana Vargas.

MATHEMATICS

13. The Mathematics Department Chairman's Award for excellence in mathematics. A desk trophy each is awarded José Tristan Awaya, Adrian Dumosmog, Avery Greenberg, Sefi Haq, Samuel Pekats, Michael Rodopoulos, Justin Sirota, Samuel Stevens, and Sidrah Syed.

14. The Mathematics Department Mathematical Perseverance Award recognizes students who show outstanding educational growth, commitment and intellectual development in mathematics. A desk trophy each is awarded to Cassandra Chavez, Christina Cruz, Nadja Dixon, Marissa Hopkins, Thomas Magana, Juan Tobón Rua, and Sandra Ukaegbu.

15. The Mathematics Department Community Service Award recognizes contributions to making mathematics more accessible and enjoyable, enriching the mathematical experiences at New Rochelle High School, performing mathematical education outreach, and/or the use of mathematics in the service and betterment of humanity. Awarded to Sawyer Paccione.

16. The Mathematics Department Innovation Award recognizes students who have distinguished themselves scholastically and show promise of contributing in an important way to the mathematical sciences. Awarded to Adrian Dusmomog, David Garrambone, Lloyd King, and Ananya Pavuluri.

17. The Mathematics Department Computer Science Award recognizes outstanding achievement in computer sciences. Awarded to Steven Solar.

ENGINEERING

18. The Excellence in Robotics Engineering Award commemorates robotics team member who best demonstrates four characteristics needed to be a successful engineering community member: hard work, self-reliance, a willingness to learn new things, and that the simplest approach is usually the best one. Furthermore, this student dedicated himself to spreading these characteristics to his peers and the New Rochelle community as a whole. Sponsored by Nick Krichevsky, President of the New Ro-Bots 2015- 2017, and his family, $200 is awarded to Julio Godoy-Torres.

SCIENCE

19. The New Rochelle High School Science Department Award for outstanding achievement in Biology. A book is awarded to Andrew J. Sorota.

- 20. The New Rochelle High School Science Department Award for outstanding achievement in Physics. A book is awarded to Elijah Pomerantz.
- 21. The New Rochelle High School Science Department Award for outstanding achievement in Chemistry. A book is awarded to Zoe Steffensen.
- 22. The New Rochelle High School Science Department Award for outstanding achievement in Earth Science. A book is awarded to Jenna Cordaro.
- 23. The American Association of Physics Teachers Award for outstanding work in Physics. A book is awarded to Randall St. Louis.
- 24. The Robert Peretz Memorial Award for Chemistry is awarded to a graduating senior who demonstrates excellence in chemistry and enthusiasm for the subject. A book is awarded to James Calano.
- 25. The Science of Food Award is presented to a graduating senior for outstanding achievement in Biology. A book is awarded to Mikaela Brecher.
- 26. The Science Department Gardening Club Award is awarded to a student for her dedicated service. A book is presented to Sheila Kelly-Yuoh.
- 27. The Science Department Green Club Award is awarded to a student for his dedicated service. A book is presented to Seth Carlson.
- 28. The New Rochelle High School Science Department Award for outstanding achievement in Advanced Placement Biology. A book is awarded to Steven Solar.

29. The New Rochelle High School Science Department Award for outstanding achievement in Advanced Placement Chemistry. A book is awarded to Elijah Pomerantz.

30. The New Rochelle High School Science Department Award for outstanding achievement in Advanced Placement Physics. A book is awarded to Taylan Selman.

31. The New Rochelle High School Science Department Award for outstanding achievement in Advanced Placement Environmental Science. A book is awarded to Kiera Jackson.

32. The PBA/Forensic Science Award is given to a student who has shown dedication, excitement and a passion for learning throughout the year. $250 is awarded to Natalia Chaparro.

33. The Peg Adamo Young Women of Science Award is granted to two exceptional young women who exhibit mastery of all facets of scientific inquiry. A book each is awarded to Zahra Masih and Sasha McKay.

34. The Astronomy Award presented by LIRIC (Learning in Retirement at Iona College) for in-depth understanding of complex astronomical phenomena and involvement in the planetarium. $100 and a book are awarded to Matthew Phillip Carrella.

35. The Frank Miceli Memorial Award is presented to a graduating senior who has demonstrated an interest in gardening and horticulture. $500 is presented to Sol Munguia.

36. The Sol Charney Memorial Award is given to a student who has shown growth and achievement in biology and who has an interest in becoming a physician. $500 is awarded to Sasha McKay.

SOCIAL STUDIES

37. The Voltaire Award is presented to the most distinguished essayist in the Social Studies Department. Books and a certificate are awarded to Zoey Deutsch.

38. The Boxer Award is presented to seniors who facilitate thoughtful classroom dialogue through their depth and breadth of knowledge, openness to varying points of view, and ability to listen, synthesize and respond to views of classmates. A book each is presented to Alanna Reid and Moises Reyes.

39. The Franklin Award is presented to students who enhance the classroom environment every day with their solid commitment to learning and whose strength of character makes them a joy to teach. A book each is awarded to Brandon Guizar and Sarah Rabenstein Bolufer.

40. The Brand Award is presented to a student whose love of learning and joy in its pursuit engenders respect from peers and teachers alike. This student is truly a pleasure to have in class. A book is awarded to Jacob Hocking.

41. A Nation of Immigrants Award is given to students for their excellence in Social Studies. These students represent how the American Dream becomes a reality through hard work, dedication, and academic commitment. A plaque and a $50 gift certificate each is awarded to Ezequiel Elian and Cinthya Roque Diaz.

42. The Advanced Placement European History Award for excellence in the pursuit of historical research and critical analysis. A book and $100 are awarded to Seth Carlson.

43. The Somos Uno Award for Excellence in Latin American Studies is given to a student enrolled in the Advanced Topics in Latin American Studies course, who has demonstrated interest, excellence and a passion for learning about the political, economic, social and cultural history of Latin America and the contribution of Latinos in America. A book and a plaque is awarded to Oriana Reyes-Colon.

44. The Advanced Placement Human Geography Award for academic excellence in the study of the world and its people. Two books and a certificate are awarded to Alissa Johnson.

45. The Pollard-Stein Award given by Barbara Pollard-Stein, New Rochelle High School Class of 1972, to a senior who has demonstrated interest and excellence in the arts and social sciences and plans to pursue further study in the Humanities. $250 is awarded to Emma Mandella.

46. The Steven Goldberg Award, named in honor of the former Chair of the Social Studies Department in recognition of his exceptional dedication to the Social Studies Department and to the students of New Rochelle High School. The award is given to students who best demonstrate the passion, scholarship, insight, and love of learning that Mr. Goldberg exemplified. Books, $100, and a certificate are awarded to Angel Bonilla and Corey Scheinfed.

47. The Sajourney Truth Award for Excellence in African American Studies is given to students from our Topics in African-American Studies class, who have demonstrated interest, excellence and a passion for learning about the contributions and the role of African-Americans in shaping our national experience. A book and a plaque each are awarded to Ever Maat-Mack and Rachel Motley.

48. The German Freundschaft Award is presented to a participant in the German American Partnership Program exchange with Hamm Gymnasium who has continued his study of German culture and society. A book and a certificate are awarded to Zoe Jimenez.

49. The Social Sciences Award is presented to two seniors for academic excellence in the study of the social sciences. A certificate and $100 each are awarded to Mikaela Brecher and Steven Solar.

50. The New Rochelle Bar Association Award for extraordinary interest and excellence in law studies. $250 each is awarded to Sumaiya Islam, Sheila Kelly-Yuoh, and Zahra Masih.

51. The Carol Nielson McGill Economics Award is presented to a senior for academic excellence in the study of Economics. A certificate is awarded to Ruby Hastie.

52. The Importance of History Award is given to two students who have demonstrated interest and excellence in Social Studies. These students clearly understand that we study history, not only to learn from our past, but more importantly, to create a better future. A certificate and a $50 gift certificate each are awarded to Diana Aguilar and Jahvon Wilson.

53. The Political Activism Award is presented to two seniors who have demonstrated a high level of civic awareness, an outstanding interest and involvement in public policy issues, and a desire to pursue further study in government and political science. A $100 each is awarded to

Andrew J. Sorota and Grace Turkewitz.

54. The Human Rights Award, established in loving memory of Westchester Holocaust and human rights educator, Susan Goldberg, is presented to a senior who has demonstrated passion, commitment and outstanding leadership in fighting bigotry and hatred through education in involvement in human rights initiatives. $200 is awarded to Kimberly Collins.

55. The Social Studies Department Award is presented to a senior for overall outstanding achievement in four years of social studies at New Rochelle High School. A plaque and books are awarded to Elijah Pomerantz.

BUSINESS

56. The Excellence in Marketing Award is given to a student who has exhibited an extraordinary interest in the field of Marketing and who has demonstrated outstanding academic performance in more than one Marketing course. A plaque and a $50 gift certificate are awarded to Silvio Baricevic.

57. The Business Education Department Award is presented to a senior for overall outstanding achievement in four years of coursework in accounting, marketing and business law at New Rochelle High School. A plaque is awarded to Nicholas Pallotta.

58. The Macroeconomics Distinguished Scholar Award is given to a student who demonstrates exceptional proficiency in macroeconomics and who consistently explains macroeconomics theories/concepts to his peers in a fluid manner. A certificate and a subscription to The Economist are awarded to Randall St. Louis.

59. The Talner Jewelers Award is given to a business student for cooperation, industry and excellent attendance. $100 is awarded to Siena Callegari.

60. The Simon and Natalie Gitlitz Memorial Award for further education to an outstanding student in the Business Department. $100 is awarded to Paolina Mendoza Yanez.

61. The Salvatore Michael Cassara Memorial Award is given to a student who exhibits love for accounting and who shows perseverance to obtain her goals and a sense of community service. Salvatore was a 1955 graduate of New Rochelle High School. During his high school years he was an all-county track and field, cross country runner, vice-president of the Banking Club and an Eagle Scout. He continued his studies at NYU on scholarship, and soon became a certified public accountant. He opened his practice in New Rochelle and continued practicing his livelihood here for the next 40 years. He was treasurer to the Chamber of Commerce and the Girls and Boys Club, president of the New Rochelle Jaycees and the University Club, and a member of the AICPA and the Elks Club. $1,000 is awarded to Elizabeth Fullman.

PERFORMING and VISUAL ARTS

62. The Chorale Program Graduation Award is presented for contribution to the high schools' choirs and varied music activities. Awarded to Alexandra Allard, Rotem Alon, Annael Alvarez, Sarah Bases, Michael Becker, Natalia Chaparro, Isabelle Clayton, Jeremy

Delgado, Diana Diaz, Gabriella Dumani, Koby Faulk, Taylor Jackson, Shaheira Jones, Michael Lawson, Dainia Longley, Bryce Maddox, Sasha McKay, Olivia Morgan, Rachel Motley, Tiara Parchment, Vrinda Raghubar, David Rubertone, Mario Sanabria, Shannon Shaikhar, Dejah Simmons, and Molly Varillas.

63. The Instrumental Music Program Graduation Award is presented for contribution to the success of the high school's instrumental program. Awarded to band students: Seth Carlson, Alexis Fuerte, Sofia Halpern, Alissa Johnson, Alexandra Kendall, Ryan MacPherson, Christian Martinez, William Nocar, Samuel Pekats, Tyler Pinnock, Elijah Pomerantz, Gracie Rosenbaum, Corey Scheinfeld, Taylan Selman, and Byan Yoguez. To orchestra students: Anjali Bisaria, Micaela Canapa, Adeline Cullom, Zoe Gierlinger, Steven Kroleski, Alejandra Lopez, Nancy Lopez, Jada Miller, Tillie Morris, Kae'la Morton, Maria Ocegüera, Ese Ogaga, Sawyer Paccione, Ananya Pavuluri, Ashely Perez, Randall St. Louis, Aaliyah Suarez, Dana Walters.

64. The Chorale Service Graduation Award for generous time given for the benefit of the Chorale Program. A plaque each is awarded to Bryce Maddox and Vrinda Raghubar.

65. The Westchester Musicians Guild Jane Hart Memorial Award is given by officers and members of the guild to a student who intends to continue music education, and who has participated successfully in the vocal and/or instrumental music activities of the school. A certificate and $150 are awarded to Maria de los Angeles Ocegüera.

66. The Tri-M Music Honor Society Award presented to a graduating senior for upholding the high standards of character, cooperation, scholarship, leadership, and service. A plaque is awarded to Gabriella Dumani.

67. The Bryant Minot Symphonic Band Award for exceptional contribution to the success of the varied musical activities of the New Rochelle High School Symphonic Band. A plaque is awarded to Alissa Johnson.

68. The National School Choral Award the top nationwide award in the school choral field, recognizes the most outstanding choral student for superior musicianship, leadership, dependability, loyalty, and cooperation. A certificate and a desk trophy are awarded to Annael Alvarez.

69. The John Philip Sousa Band Award, the top nationwide award in the school band field, recognizes the most outstanding band student who displays superior musicianship, leadership, dependability, loyalty and cooperation. A certificate and a desk trophy are awarded to Taylan Selman.

70. The National School Orchestral Award, the top nationwide award in the school orchestra field, recognizes the most outstanding orchestra student for superior musicianship, leadership, dependability, loyalty and cooperation. A certificate and a desk trophy are awarded to Tillie Morris.

71. The Westchester Philharmonic Award is given to the outstanding music student of the senior class. A certificate is awarded to Bryce Maddox.

72. The Westchester Musicians Guild Thelma Bobrowitz Memorial Award presented to a senior who is a highly accomplished instrumentalist and intends to pursue music in college. A certificate and $150 are awarded to Jada Miller.

73. The Annette Incorvia Memorial Award given to an outstanding instrumentalist who has made extraordinary contributions to the success of the instrumental music program. A certificate and $150 are awarded to Elijah Pomerantz.

74. The Norman Brooks Memorial Scholarship presented to an outstanding graduating senior who is active in the music program of New Rochelle High School and who embodies the qualities Mr. Brooks represented: compassion, dedication, and generosity with a strong commitment to the community. $100 is awarded to Adeline Cullom.

75. The New York State School Music Association recognizes students who have been selected to perform at the Conference All-State in Rochester, New York. A certificate each is presented to Annael Alvarez and David Rubertone.

76. The Louis Armstrong Jazz Award given to the outstanding jazz instrumentalist who has contributed to the success of the jazz program. A certificate, a pin, and a desk trophy are presented to Alexandra Kendall.

77. The Mr. and Mrs. Stephen J. Romano Award is presented to a student who demonstrates academic excellence and who intends to pursue a career in singing. $250 is awarded to David Rubertone.

78. The Class of 1985 Award is presented to two graduating seniors who excel in music performance. $250 each is awarded to Alexandra Kendall and Steven Kroleski.

79. The Jill Isacson Nadler Music Award is donated annually by friends and family in memory of Jill, a parent, teacher, musician and an inspiration to all who knew her. This award is given to further the music education of a graduating senior who qualifies on the basis of talent and enthusiasm. $500 is awarded to Alissa Johnson.

80. The James Gregory Theatre Scholarship Arts Award is presented to a student who excels in the field of Performing Arts and who intends to pursue a career in the Performing Arts. $1,000 and a plaque are presented to Rachel Katz.

81. The Bernard J. Lechner Scholarship Award given in memory of Mr. Lechner, who grew up in New Rochelle and graduated from New Rochelle High School, class of 1949. The award is given in recognition of two graduation seniors who excel in drama and music. $1,000 each is awarded Nicholas Baker and Brea Watkins.

82. The PAVE Scholarship Awards are being given by Dr. Domenic Guastaferrro, founder and former director of PAVE (Performing and Visual Arts Education). The awards are presented to students who have completed the PAVE program and who are seeking a college education and a career in their particular discipline. They are in excellent academic standing and are all exceptionally talented with a spirit of giving and who work together in harmony. $350 each is presented to the following students: Iran Guzman (theater), David Rubertone (chorus), Margaret DeRaffele (dance), Alexandra Kendall (band), Sawyer Paccione (orchestra); and, Eliana Silk (art).

83. The New Rochelle Council of the Arts Award presented to seniors who exemplify the aesthetic standards that the Council strives to model for the City of New Rochelle. $100 each is awarded to art student: Christian Martinez-Mendoza, for music; Elizabeth Ricker, for literature; Taylor Williamson, for dance; Madaline Thompson, for theater; and, Avital Zemel, for art.

84. The National Art Honor Society Award is given to seniors of the National Art Honor Society who have shown excellence and a dedicated spirit to the pursuit of art, further creative abilities and talents of the Society's members through their leadership, and bring art to the attention of the school and the community through their invaluable community service to others. A certificate each is awarded to Annael Alvarez, Oriana Colon-Reyes, Carmen Guzman, Susan Hu, Zahra Masih and Teresa Torres Yoguez.

85. The Rhode Island School of Design Award is given to an outstanding senior student in the visual arts. A book is awarded to Avital Zemel.

86. The Art Department Award for significant achievement in Visual Arts. A certificate each is presented to Andrew Alphonse, Jailene Ayala, Kevin Belalcazar, Madeline Bishop, Lucas Carvalho, Daniel Ceja, Montserrat Contreras, Kosen Croft, Veronica Diaz, Annabelle Farrell, Heather Fermin, Giovanna Furino, Anerili Jimenez, Andrea Lopez, Carolyne Maldonado, Rachael Mann, Carolinn McCaffrey, Shaneequa McIntyre, Isaas Reyes, Mariela Rodriguez, Abigail Rogot, José Tapia-Garcia, Sandra Ukaegbu, Selma Vulic and Sarah Wundeler.

87. The "Art Effects" Award given to graduating art students for excellence in the visual arts. A $75 gift certificate each is awarded to Nasreen Ahmed, Noah Berkowitz, Jacob Hocking, and Teresa Torres Yoguez.

88. The New Rochelle Arts Association Award given to a graduating senior who excels in visual arts. A certificate and $200 is presented to Jacqueline Parsehian.

89. The Backstreet Gallery Award is given to seniors who are willing to take risks in the development of their visual expression. A $75 gift certificate towards framing each is awarded to Joelle Bragen, Eduardo Lopez, and Bethany Tallan.

90. The Shelley Volk and Amanda Wellstood Award is given to a senior-year student who is pursuing Art in college. It is given in honor of all PAVE art teachers who give NRHS students such a strong Art foundation. $200 is awarded to Sabrina Salov.

91. The Outstanding Achievement in Art Technology Award is given to a student who has shown excellence in the area of Computer Art and Design. $250 is awarded to Joel Hutchinson.

92. The Art Department Purchase Award is given to a student who has shown excellence in visual arts. Her artwork will be kept on display in the Art Department office as part of the New Rochelle High School Art Department collection. A certificate and $100 are awarded to Mya Seward.

93. The Dr. David and Erma Mass Scholarship Award is presented to a graduating senior who is pursuing a career as an artist. $350 is awarded to Oriana Colon-Reyes.

94. The Alexander Rutsch Memorial Award for an excellent student in multimedia who has shown honesty, integrity, creativity and has a unique sense and appreciation of the beauty of our universal surroundings. A certificate, a monograph and $500 are awarded to Carmen Guzman.

WORLD LANGUAGE

95. The World Language Department recognizes students who excel in the ENL program. For honorable mention in English as a New Language, $50 is awarded to Ezechiel Elien. For the greatest improvement in English as a New Language and significant contribution to other students in their efforts to adjust to a new environment, $100 is awarded to Verdiane Gueguinda.

96. The World Language Department Award for outstanding achievement in Mandarin. $100 is awarded to Samuel Pekats.

97. The World Language Department Award for outstanding achievement in Spanish. $100 is awarded to Maria Baratau.

98. The World Language Department Award for distinction in the study of Latin. A book is awarded to Isabelle Graham.

99. The National Italian Honor Society Award is given to club officers of members of the Italian Honor Society for outstanding achievement in the study of Italian. $100 each is given to Erin Apollo and Julia Caliendo.

100. The Margery Laing ENL Award is presented to a graduating ENL student who has excelled in the classroom and demonstrated leadership qualities in the community. $200 is awarded to Carlos Cabrera.

101. The Spanish Honor Society Award is given to a member of the Spanish Honor Society for outstanding achievement in the study of Spanish. $100 is presented to Sarah Rabenstein Bolufer.

102. The Frederick Julian Steinhardt French Prize given by the estate of Mr. Samuel C. Steinhardt in honor of his son to the senior having the highest average in French. $100 is awarded to Anna Gussenhoven.

103. The Calabria Mutual Aid Society Award is presented to a senior having a high academic average in the study of Italian. $250 is awarded to Jared Sullivan.

104. The Patrice Kunstreich Scholarship Award given in memory of Patrice Kunstreich, an outstanding student of Russian at New Rochelle High School. This award is presented to a graduating senior for excellence in the study of a foreign language at an advanced level. $750 is awarded to Annael Alvarez.

ATHLETICS, HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

105. The Arthur Morgan Scholar-Athlete Award for outstanding academic achievement, leadership, sportsmanship and ability. A plaque each is awarded to Kiera Jackson and Andrew Sirota.

106. The Marcelle C. Novin Memorial Award given to two outstanding seniors in Physical Education who plan to attend college. Marcelle C. Novin was a dedicated member of the women's Physical Education department for eight years. Quoted from her co-workers: "The eagerness she displayed for her field and her high professional standards will always set an example for our department. She will always be remembered for her cheerful, sunny disposition, and a genuine feeling and concern she had for her students.

$200 each is awarded to Alexandra Allard and William Nocar.

107. The Louis Lise Memorial Award given by the New Rochelle Little League to a member of the varsity softball team who has shown outstanding dedication and improvement. A trophy is awarded to Shayna Goldfarb.

108. The Coach Lou and Louise Amonson Memorial Scholarship is presented to two athletes who are college-bound seniors who have displayed dedication, leadership, courage and scholarship. $600 each is awarded to Olivia Morgan and Jonathan Saddler.

109. The Cremins Family Scholarship Award is given to a college-bound senior who is a member of the New Rochelle High School football team and who exhibits qualities of leadership, selflessness and loyalty. $500 is awarded to Lloyd King.

110. The Dr. David and Erma Mass Scholarship Award is presented to a member of the New Rochelle High School football team who, in the opinion of the coaches, represents the best in social awareness and good fellowship. $350 is awarded to Sabrina Salov.

111. The Archer/Torigian Scholarship Award is presented by the New Rochelle High School Athletic Department and Varsity Softball team in memory of two former student athletes at New Rochelle High School who demonstrated leadership, commitment, sportsmanship, and perseverance while participating in the softball program at NRHS. $500 each is awarded to Nicolette Miceli and Tillie Morris.

112. The Patrick L. Vaccaro Scholarship Award is presented to graduating senior athlete who has demonstrated great character and exemplary work ethic on the court and in the classroom as well as an abiding commitment to the basketball program. $1,000 is awarded to Le'Sandra Turner.

113. The Ted A. Murphy New Rochelle Sports Hall of Fame Award is presented to students in recognition of their achievements in sports and academics. Awarded to Ruby Hastie and Juan Tobón Rua.

114. The Jeffrey Krieger Memorial Scholarship Award is presented to a graduating senior who is in good academic standing and who intends to pursue swimming at a college level. $500 is awarded to Michael Lawson.

GENERAL AWARDS

115. The American Association of University Women Outstanding Student Award is presented to a student who has demonstrated service to her school, academic ability, and potential for future service to women in the solution of social and civic problems. A book and a certificate are awarded to Alana Reid.

116. The Student Against Drunken Driving (SADD) Leadership Award is presented to the officers who are wholeheartedly committed and will do everything in their power to maintain the esteem of the program. These students are true leaders who promote awareness in many different ways throughout the school and community. SADD's goal is to promote awareness of the dangers due to drinking and driving in order to save lives. A certificate each is presented to Kathleen Dillon and Noelle Miceli.

117. The New York State Assembly Certificate of Merit Award is given to a student who has shown leadership in either student government, journalism, or speech and debate. Awarded to Rachel Sadow.

118. The Triple "C" Award recognizes the "Character, Courage and Commitment" of New York's hard-working students. A certificate is awarded to Emonty Barnes.

119. The William Carrington Memorial Award for humanitarian activity and service to the school and community. $100 is awarded to Nicholas Pallotta.

120. The Administrative and Supervisory Scholarship Award is presented to seniors for outstanding scholastic achievement and service during high school. $100 each is awarded to James Calano, Sofia Halpern, Claudia Marcelin and Corey Scheinfeld.

121. The Steven Douglas Miller Memorial Award established by his parents in honor of their son, a member of the Class of 1970 at New Rochelle High School. He exhibited outstanding leadership as G.O. President, academic talent as a runner-up in the National Merit Scholarship competition and athletic ability as a fullback on the varsity football team. This award is presented to a student who best exemplifies Steve's high scholastic standards and leadership qualities. A $100 is presented to Madeline Bishop.

122. The Senior Class Officer Award is given to the members of the senior class whose contribution to their class has been exceptional. A certificate each is presented to Kimberly Collins, Ever-Maat Mack, Rachel Motley and Ananya Pavuluri.

123. The New Rochelle High School PTSA Award is given to graduating seniors for high academic achievement and significant school/community involvement. A plaque each is awarded to Alexandra Gottesman, Kelly Kettner, Andrew B. Sirota, Daniela Valdovinos, and Hannah Zimmerman.

124. The New Rochelle High School PTSA Award for talent, extraordinary spirit and unselfish commitment to the good of our school. A plaque each is given to Nina Bar-Ness, Isabella Clayton, Briana Luzi, and Christine Magloire.

125. The New Rochelle High School PTSA Award for imaginative leadership and significant service. A plaque each is awarded to Rotem Alon, Angel Bonilla, Sophia Fatigate, Francisco Maldonado, and Hallie Milstein.

126. The New Rochelle High School PTSA Award for personal courage and determination in the pursuit of academic excellence. A plaque each is awarded to Cydnei Adamson, Isabel Cohen, Hunter Conte, Matthew Jacob, and Samantha Russo.

127. The PTSA Award for unusual individual talent, extraordinary accomplishments, and excellent academic achievement. A plaque each is awarded to Victoria Chu, Audrey Fox, Zoe Gierlinger, Steven Kroleski, Rocco Onorino, and Christian Weckesser.

128. The PTSA Award presented to students who have overcome obstacles, demonstrated academic achievement, and leadership qualities, and service to the school and community. A plaque each is awarded to Andrew Alphonse, Brian Estrada-Ramirez, Kevin Mc Gay, Kenny Jaramillo, and Christian Umbro.

129. The P.T.A. President's Award in honor of Marlene Tintera, former PTA president awarded to students who have made a significant contribution to the high school and have demonstrated extraordinary commitment and effort throughout their school years. A plaque each is awarded to Leigh Bierman, Zoe Colman, Kelsey Freeman, Lauren Ginsberg, and Julia Middlesworth.

130. The PTA Council Award is given on behalf of the PTA Council as recognition to the efforts of the Board of Education on behalf of our children. The award is presented to a student who has demonstrated commitment to the New Rochelle School District through community involvement. $250 is awarded to Ashley Jacob.

131. The Bertha F. Smith Award given in her memory by Vincent Cioffari, one of her former students at Trinity Elementary School, to a recent immigrant to the United States whose performance at New Rochelle High School is characterized by outstanding achievement and service. $200 is awarded to Adrian Dumosmog.

132. The Albert Leonard Memorial Scholarship in memory of the former Superintendent of Schools is presented to a deserving college-bound student. $100 is awarded to Caitlin Acocella.

133. The Jerri Ellen Trenholm Award presented to a deserving student who is going on to higher education at either a trade school or college. $500 is awarded to Sintia Vargas.

134. The Albert Einstein Scholarship Award is given to students who have triumphed over educational challenges and succeeded across academic, social and work situations. A certificate and a $100 gift card each is awarded to Jitauri Brown, Mary Fay, Taneesha Odom-Perrineau, and Sandra Ukaegbu.

135. The Albert Einstein Scholarship Award is given to students who have overcome significant multiple obstacles in their education. Students who have maintained positive performance, good attitude and participated in extra-curricular activities. A certificate and a $100 gift card each is awarded to Mindy Brickel, Dylan Gesang, Connor McCarthy, and Lisandro Rodriguez.

136. The Marvin Bookbinder Award is given to students who demonstrate exemplary sensitivity and caring and enjoy the respect and friendship of both students and faculty. $100 each is awarded to Silvio Baricevic, Kathleen Dillon, Shannon Maguire, Molly Varillas, and Dana Walters.

137. The Anthony Pizzonia CPR/First Aid Award is presented to the senior who has demonstrated outstanding skills in CPR/First Aid. $250 is awarded to Erin Apollo.

138. The The Rabbi Amiel Wohl Coalition for Mutual Respect Award to a senior who has exemplified the ideals of the Coalition by building bridges and encouraging friendship and fellowship between members of different racial and ethnic groups. $350 is awarded to Ever-Maat Mack.

139. The Leonard Talner Memorial Award to a member of the class judged by the Class of 2017 to have done the most for and brought the most honor to New Rochelle High School. A trophy and $100 are awarded to Juan Tobón Rua.

140. The Michael Clarke Memorial Scholarship Award for unwavering loyalty for the past four years to New Rochelle High School, and an unselfish commitment to the humanitarian needs of the community. $100 is presented to Melanie Alago.

141. The Montefiore New Rochelle Hospital Award is presented to a graduating student for recognition of his academic achievement and community service. $100 is awarded to Alyssa Ginsburg.

142. The New Rochelle High School Best Buddies Goorevitch Award is presented to honor the students who supported the concepts of friendship, inclusion and competence. $250 each is awarded to the co-presidents of the NRHS Best Buddies Chapter, Jensy Maldonado and Miriam Maravilla.

143. The Dr. Orlo K. Jenny Award is presented to a graduating for his devotion to the welfare of fellow students in a spirit of true humanitarianism. $200 is awarded to Lloyd King.

144. The New Rochelle High School Counseling Department Award is presented to graduating seniors for their outstanding academic performance. $100 each is awarded to Zoe Colman, Ismael Ramirez, and Molly Varillas.

145. The New Rochelle High School Counseling Department Award is presented to graduating seniors for their perseverance, determination and a willingness to work for success. $100 each is awarded to Melanie Alago, Micela Canapa, Katherine Carlos, Csaba Csontos, Nasir Dunham, Jenna Farr, Juan Jimenez, Najat Kee, and Azalia Pineda Ramirez.

146. The New Rochelle High School Counseling Department Award is presented to graduating seniors for their concern for others and treating everyone with dignity and respect. $100 each is awarded to Caitlin Acocella, Omar Espinoza, Erik Godoy, Caesar Torres Choflet, and Cynthia Valencia.

147. The Evelyn Caputo Special Education Scholarship Award given to a graduating senior for interest in or service given to Special Education. A $500 is awarded to Jency Maldonado.

148. The Larry Cole Award is given in memory of Mr. Cole to a graduating senior who exhibits interest and ability in journalism. $250 is awarded to Seth Carlson.

149. The Larry Cole Memorial Fund for special ability in journalism and qualities exemplified by Mr. Cole during his lifetime - integrity, fair play, enthusiasm and a desire to discover and report the truth. $2,000 is awarded to Jared Ochacher.

150. The Extended Day Program Award is presented to a full-time Extended Day School student who has shown good academic performance, a high level of respect towards others and has maintained continuous positive attitude. In addition, this student has great potential for success in higher education. A trophy and $200 are awarded to Julia Moreira Luiz.

151. The New Rochelle High School Counseling Department award in Honor of Superintendent Linda Kelly. The NRHS counselors proudly recognize a senior who exemplifies the ideals of Ms. Linda Kelly's superintendence and years of service to the City School District of New Rochelle. Ms. Kelly's grace and elegance, passionate commitment to educational excellence, and a genuine concern for the well-being of all New Rochelle city residents have earned her the respect and admiration of the entire community. In recognition of her scholarship, leadership, and service inspired by Ms. Kelly's example $250 is awarded to Taylan Selman.

152. The Evelina Martino Memorial Award is given in her memory to a student who has demonstrated excellence in the performing arts, compassion and good academic standing. Evelina Martino cared deeply for others and showed great passion for life. She was adored and admired by family and friends and had great enthusiasm and appreciation for the creative and performing arts. $150 and a plaque are presented to Grace Turkewitz.

153. The Gilda Giordano Award is presented to a student who has faced physical challenges but has not allowed these challenges to hinder her from achieving her goals. $300 is awarded to Faith Lunde.

154. The Carmela and Frank Giuliano Award is given in loving memory of two individuals who immigrated to the United States. Despite numerous challenges, they demonstrated a generous spirit and love for their adopted country, the arts, and history. They possessed a motivating respect for education and the possibilities it could afford to individuals. They strongly believed that through education one could make significant contributions to society, and their beloved adopted country. Like many other immigrants, their personal sacrifices supported and encouraged their children, extended family in the U.S. and abroad, and many others who entered their circle. This award is given to a first generation student who embodies this spirit by her character, perseverance, scholarship, passion for educational excellence, and commitment to support others in their quest for learning. $250 is awarded to Daniela Valdovinos.

155. The New Rochelle High School Memorial Scholarship is awarded to graduating seniors who have demonstrated outstanding growth and achievement. $500 each is presented to Avery Greenberg and Breana Vazquez.

156. The Roland T. Heacock , II Scholarship Award is presented to a senior, who best exemplifies those principals for which Roland stood during his lifetime: scholarship, compassion, courage and community service. Named after his illustrious grandfather, the Rev. Roland T. Heacock, Roland was President of his class for three years and belonged to the National Honor Society, the Black Students Association and many other organizations. He then went on to Harvard where he majored in Pre-Med Studies until his senior year. $500 is awarded to Randall St. Louis.

157. The United Cultures Club Award is given to seniors to further their education. These are students who have demonstrated their commitment to their community and who have served as role models to their peers. $300 each is awarded to Annael Alvarez, Guadalupe Ceja-Cisneros, Kayla Esteves, and Cecilia Perez.

158. The “I Remember Award,” given by the Barbosa family, to a graduating ENL student who despite cultural, linguistic and/or social or academic challenges, will be graduating and attending college. $300 is presented to Carlos Cabrera.

159. The Jared Bergman Memorial Scholarship Award. Jared Bergman, a 2007 NRHS graduate, was on the road to success when his life was suddenly cut short. Jared lived life with incredible zest and tackled challenges with a great deal of tenacity. From the time he was very small he understood the importance of putting your heart and soul into achieving your dreams. In his 20 years of life he impacted the lives of many. He had a love for children, a true passion for athletics, enjoyed the camaraderie of team sports, had a great sense of humor, was a loyal friend and a compassionate human being. The Jared Bergman Memorial Award is given to a student who embodies some of these same qualities. (Although Jared was a diehard Yankee fan, this is not a requirement!!!). $500 is presented to Caleb Redlener.

160. The SUNY Purchase Great Potential Program Award is presented to students for participation in the program. The program serves as a vehicle for educational support aimed at improving the academic and social skills of students while in turn exposing them to cultural, recreational and educational opportunities. Presented to Sierra Logan and Stanley Santana.

161. The Class of 1960 Award is given to a graduating senior who has maintained academic excellence despite personal hardship and who has exemplified qualities of leadership demonstrated thorough service to school and/or community. $500 is awarded to Andrew J. Sorota.

162. The Jodie Torigian Memorial Award given in honor of Jodie Torigian, a 1996 NRHS graduate who strived to do the best and be the best, is presented to a senior who exemplifies qualities of respect, concern, and appreciation for all life. $500 is awarded to Javier Amezcua.

163. The Kieran J. Grogan, Jr. Scholarship Award. Academic achievement is more than just good grades; it is about working hard to reach your full potential. The Kieran J. Grogan, Jr. Award embodies this spirit. Kieran, a 2010 NRHS graduate, defined success as doing your best and always having a smile. Kieran also had a passion for working with children, and believed in giving back to the community. This award is given in his memory, to a college-bound student who recognizes the importance of family and friends, academic perseverance, a commitment to community service, and who maintains a positive attitude and sense of humor. $500 is presented to Kevin Baker.

164. The Bert Saperstein Communications Scholarship Award is presented to a graduating senior who in good academic standing and who has shown an interest in the field of Communications. $1,000 is awarded to Elizabeth Ricker.

165. The Ernest Jerome Quarles, Sr. Memorial Scholarship Award is presented to a student who strives for success and has exhibited a positive attitude, compassionate and caring spirit for his peers in school and community. $500 is presented to Jaylin Lee McGhee.

166. The Interreligious Council of New Rochelle Recognition Award is presented to two graduating seniors who exemplify the ideals of the council in their lives: ecumenical spirit, love and concern for others and volunteer work in the community. The Sr. Dorothy Ann Kelly scholarship of $500 each is awarded to Mariana Jimenez Gonzalez and Daniela Valdovinos

167. The Christian Club Award is presented to dedicated members of the club. For her outstanding leadership and academic achievement, $200 is awarded to Kimberly Collins; for her uplifting spirit and passion in the study of scripture, $200 is awarded to Rachel Motley; and, for acts of kindness towards his peers, $200 is awarded to Jonathan Saddler.

168. The Tommy LaBella Memorial Character and Kindness Award is given to recognize students who display a kind and compassionate heart to those around them, who are striving to build their character despite obstacles and adversity, who put forth a tireless effort at all they do, who are role models to others and who promote good decision making among their peers. $500 each is awarded to Camryn Allen, Anthony Alvarez, and Jeremy Delgado.

169. The Westchester Alliance of Black School Educators (WABSE) Award. Founded in 1991 by six black administrators and educators in the New Rochelle School District. It is the first NABSE official affiliate of Westchester County to implement the mission of NABSE and to convene black educators and others, directly or indirectly involved in the educational process, to discuss, strategize and implement solutions to the unique problems they and their students face. The Anne G. Williams Scholarship is posthumously named after a highly respected administrator at Albert E. Leonard Middle School in New Rochelle and a founder of our organization. Mrs. Williams strongly believed that education equals success for African Americans. Presented to two deserving seniors to further their education, $500 each is awarded to Tasha Brown, Kimberly Collins, Raphael Morris, and Noelani Sajous.

170. The Andrea Nadel Griffin Memorial Award given in her memory to two senior students who have demonstrated love and compassion for humanity and devotion to family and friends. $1,000 is awarded to Raphael Morris; and $500 is awarded to Camryn Allen.

171. The Selinka Family Scholarship Award is given to a deserving student who is on the top 20% of the graduating class. $1,000 is awarded to Elijah Pomerantz.

172. The Westchester County Chapter of the Links, Inc. is given to students who have demonstrated high academic achievement and leadership qualities. $2,000 is awarded to Sasha McKay; and, $500 each is awarded to Kenneth Collins, Ulric Hamlet, Jr., and Ruby Hastie

173. The Shamoya McKenzie Foundation Scholarship Award given in memory of Shamoya, an energetic passionate young lady who desired to play college basketball with the UCONN Huskies Women's Basketball Team and the NY Liberty. Her life was tragically taken the day she was told she was being placed on the Varsity Girls Basketball Team at Mount Vernon High School. Since then her parents and the Board of the Shamoya McKenzie Foundation have joined together to recognize young people with the same fire and drive to succeed academically, athletically and in their community as Shamoya did. $500 is awarded to Ruby Hastie.

174. The Fund for Educational Excellence Awards: The New Rochelle Fund for Educational Excellence partners with the City School District of New Rochelle and engages the broader New Rochelle community to develop, fund and implement high-quality educational and enrichment programming that enhances the school experience and helps students thrive and succeed along their educational journey. Each student is receiving $200. The Arts and Culture Award is presented to Annael Alvarez, for her contribution to the creative, intellectual and cultural vitality of NRHS. The Technology Award is presented to Zahra Masih, whose mastery of cutting-edge technology demonstrates the power of scientific innovation. The Eric Tutera Sports Leadership Award is presented to Jonathan Saddler, whose athletic talent and discipline encouraged fellow students to excel in both academics and extra-curricular activities; and, The David A. Garfinkel Citizenship Award, presented to Andrew J. Sorota, whose remarkable community services enriched our city and inspired fellow students to participate in civic life.

175. The American Red Cross recognizes the hard work of a student in recruiting blood donors during the blood drive. Selected by the NRHS health department this award of $250 is presented to Nargis Ahmed.

176. The Miles of Hope Scholarship “Cesar Chavez” Award given in the loving memory of Roberto Cervantes, to a student who has exhibited outstanding leadership and serve as role model to other students. This student work diligently for the improvement of the Latino community. $500 is awarded to Luis Julian Rodriguez.

177. The Hispanic Culture Club Award is presented to students who demonstrate a strong commitment in all activities they participate in, have good academic standing, exhibit a great, courageous spirit and are always serving others before themselves. $100 each is presented to Sebastian Gonzalez and Fatima Ramos; and, $200 is awarded to Paolina Mendoza.

178. The Higher Education Services Corporation (HESC) Academic Excellence Scholarship Award is offered by the New York State Education Department to graduating seniors based on their high academic achievement. $1,500 each is awarded to Elijah Pomerantz and Randall St. Louis; and, $500 each is awarded to: Ethan Berenbaum, Madeline Bishop, Mikaela Brecher, Zoey Deutsch, Ruby Hastie, Kiera

Jackson, Alexandra Kendall, Kelly Kettner, Zahra Masih, Samuel Pekats, Corey Scheinfeld, Taylan Selman, Steven Solar, Andrew J. Sorota, and Zoe Steffensen.

179. The Jeremy Scheinfeld Memorial Scholarship Award is presented to a student who has demonstrated qualities exemplified by Jeremy Scheinfeld. Jeremy was a student in the New Rochelle public schools from 1992 until his tragic death in 1998 and who would have graduated in the Class of 2005. Jeremy's qualities include love of learning, honesty, sportsmanship, kindness and a love of family and friends. $1,000 is awarded to Anjali Bisaria.

180. The New Rochelle High School Guidance and Counseling Scholarship in memory of Sophie Massimo, mother of Associate Superintendent, Dr. Diane C. Massimo. The Sophie Massimo Scholarship is given in her memory to a student who makes the world a better place just by being in it. Someone who reaches out to help others, is kind hearted, self-sacrificing, broadly creative, artistic with a passion for books, literature, and lifelong learning. She loved bringing people together to enjoy family, friends and fun. This award is presented to a student who exemplifies Sophie's loving qualities. $500 is awarded to Sienna Callegari.

181. The New Rochelle High School Guidance and Counseling Award in memory of Carmen Massimo, father of Associate Superintendent, Dr. Diane Massimo. Mr. Massimo was a proud World War II Veteran who made the landing in France on D-Day morning and was credited with saving the life of a fellow soldier. During the landing and in the face of enemy fire, his close friend was blown into the water. Mr. Massimo, a challenged swimmer, leaped into the sea, grabbed onto a mined anti-landing device, and brought his friend to safety. He had a big heart, a great sense of humor, loved to laugh, and bring a smile to the faces of others; especially family. This successful entrepreneur was a generous humanitarian who made a positive difference in the life of everyone he touched. On June 12th of this year, Mr. Massimo would have turned one-hundred years old. This award is presented to a student who demonstrates high academic achievement and who has earned the respect of her peers. $500 is awarded to Julia Middlesworth.

182. The Jason Redlener Memorial Award: learning, to Jason Redlener, was not something that came out of a textbook. It was a living process of experiencing, questioning, exploring and creating. Before his life was cut short, he was on a personal quest to squeeze all he could out of life and he never missed an opportunity to share his experience with those who he loved. The Jason C. Redlener Award is presented to a senior who demonstrates this excitement and love for learning and desires to express himself creatively in the pursuit of a personal passion. $1,000 is presented to Kevin Mc Gay.

183. The Chick Evans Scholarship Award presented annually by the Evans Scholars Foundations to gold caddies who are graduating seniors with strong caddie record, excellent academics and outstanding character. A certificate and full college tuition is awarded to Alex Vasapolli.

184. The New Rochelle Federation of United School Employees Scholarship is presented to deserving graduating seniors who are children or grandchildren of a FUSE member. $1,000 each is awarded to Anjali Bisaria, Kelsey Freeman, Benjamin Long, and Sasha McKay.

185. The Marilyn Melissa Johnson Scholarship Award is given to a graduating senior, who has faced physical challenges and whose disability has not impacted her overall personality and inner spirit. $1,500 is awarded to Mary Fay.

186. The Mark A. Neiro Memorial Award given to a senior pursuing a higher education in the field of environmental studies and who has demonstrated a passion toward working to save the environment. $1,500 is awarded to Michael Lawson.

187. The NAACP New Rochelle Branch Scholarship, given in memory of past presidents, Paul d. Dennis, Jr. and Napoleon Holmes, is awarded to a college-bound student who, through her deeds and accomplishments, embodies ideals consistent with the mission of the NAACP. $500 is awarded to Ruby Hastie.

188. The Class of 1987 Award, given in memory of Dusty Rhodes. Dusty was a man committed to service in home community and to our country as a Marine. He was loved and respected by his classmates and will forever be missed. The award goes to a senior who displays the same commitment to serving his/her community. $600 is presented to Daniel Donaldson.

189. The Korean Presbyterian Church of Westchester Scholarship Award is presented to a graduating senior who will be going on to higher education. This award is given on the basis of good citizenship, good academic standing and high moral character and community service. $1,000 each is awarded to Alissa Johnson, Raphael Morris, and Noelani Sajous.

190. The Jill Allison Konwiser Scholarship Award in recognition of a student who demonstrates the love of life and learning that was shown by Jill and expresses her love through creative writing or art. $1,000 is presented to Rachel Motley.

191. The New Rochelle My Brother's Keeper Award: all youth should have the opportunity to succeed regardless of who they are, where they come from, or the circumstances into which they are born. The New Rochelle My Brother's Keeper Alliance is committed to working collectively and collaboratively to address challenges facing boys and young men of color. Through the benefaction of an anonymous donor and to bear witness to the leadership and life choices being embraced by all the MBK ambassadors to support positive change and remove barriers to success in our community, $250 each awarded to Andrew Alphonse, Emonty Barnes, Jimmy Lopez, and Juan Tobón Rua.

192. The Dominick Carmine Colabella Memorial Scholarship Award is given in his memory to two graduating students pursuing study in the field of technology, who have shown high moral character and dedication to their academic studies. $2,500 each is awarded to Sawyer Paccione and Nicholas Sanfilippo.

193. The Blatt Vasser Computers for College provides laptops to students of merit who, in spite of obstacles, are committed to continue their education after their graduation from New Rochelle High School. A laptop each is awarded to Cydnei Adamson, Camryn Allen, Guy Delva, Brian Estrada-Ramirez, and Leunita Halilaj.

194. The Dunn Family Educational Award Let's Get Ready is privileged to announce the winners of the 1st Annual Dunn Family Educational Award. Each recipient participated in the Let's Get Ready Program as a junior and excelled in a month long application and interview process. The Dunn Family is committed to the long-term success of these well-deserving students and will continue to provide support over the 4 years of their college careers. Additionally, each student will continue as part of the Let's Get Ready community through the College Success Program. We are proud of their efforts, and are thrilled to offer each recipient our support. Awarded to Jeremy Delgado, Nasir Dunham, Thomas Magana, and Jensy Maldonado.

195. To the Top with Laptops is presented to college-bound seniors who display high levels of character, ambition and performance and who have provided service to the school and/or community. A Mac computer each is awarded Erika Baston, Michael Becker, Christopher Gonzales, Raphael Morris, and Juan Tobón Rua.

196. The Sommer Family Scholarship Award is awarded to a senior who will be attending a four-year college and has demonstrated outstanding academic achievement, a passion for learning, kindness; and, a commitment to family, school and community. $5,000 for four years is awarded to Saul Gonzalez.

197. The Gwendolen M. Appleyard Fund Scholarship is awarded by the New Rochelle High School Scholarship Fund Corporation from funds bequeathed and gifted by Gwendolen M. Appleyard. Ms. Appleyard was a long-time New Rochelle resident and philanthropist. The recipients are selected on the basis of academic achievement, leadership, work experience, and service to school and/or community. $2,000 each is presented to Cydnei Adamson, Nargis Ahmed, Erin Apollo, Emonty Barnes, Angel Bonilla, James Calano, Kimberly Collins, Kiera Jackson, Taylan Selman, and Juan Tobón Rua; and, $5,000 each is awarded to Jency Maldonado, Raphael Morris, and Caleb Redlener.